SUSPECT IS ARRESTED FOR MURDER AND ROBBERY

UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR FROWNS ON OPEN-WORK, PEEK-A-BOO WAISTS GIRLS, MUST QUIT POLISHING FINGER NAILS YOU MAY SHOW GRACEFUL CURVES OF NECK, THAT'S ALL

Never before have such beautiful waists been worn as this year, with their low necks and short sleeves, and their laces and embroidery, and never before have they enhanced so well the charm of a girl's figure. But no girl has any right, who calls herself decent, to expose the shoulders, back and chest to the gaze of the public. I know it is a great temptation for girls to wear décolleté evening gowns, but it causes comment which is anything but favorable, and girls who wish to be acquired by the other sex should not do it. The worst kind of waist that has appeared so far is the so-called "peek-a-boo" waist of such thin, gauzy material that they have lost their purpose as a waist.—From advice given to the co-eds at the University by Dr. Edith Brownell

UNDERWAISTS FAR TOO FILMY

This Makes Gauziness of the Peek-a-Boo Garment All the Worse

BERKELEY, Oct. 4.—The girls attending the University of California must give up the peek-a-boo waist. This is the edict that has gone out from Dr. Edith S. Brownell, a member of the college faculty who is especially forte in securing to the co-eds on hygienic subjects.

This morning Dr. Brownell appeared before the women of the freshmen class to give them their usual lecture, and they were startled to hear a severe denunciation of the filmy "peek-a-boo" waist.

Not only were the college girls strongly advised to give up the meshy shirtwaist, but they were told that highly polished nails were not quite the proper thing. Dr. Brownell said that a girl might just as well paint her face as to put on too high a luster while at her manicuring table.

NOT FOR THE PROPER GIRLS

Expose of Shoulders, etc., Too Much for Lasses of Propriety.

No sooner had the freshmen girls who being in the first year studies are enjoying their initial taste of college life left the class room than they began to discuss the lecture. Many of the girls who were in the room when the tirade against the peek-a-boos was delivered were wearing gauzy waists themselves.

Most of the girls declared that they believed it would be good policy to dress in accordance with the dictates of the instructor while others firmly declared with a stamp of a pretty patent (Continued on Page Two)

WOMAN IS FOUND ON STREET; DYING

Supposed to Have Received Injury in Runaway.

Thrown from her buggy and rendered unconscious by the fall, Mrs. Minna Bonkofsky, the wife of a cafe owner in San Francisco, lies in a critical condition at the receiving hospital as a result of her injuries.

The woman has not recovered consciousness since she was found at the corner of Fourteenth and Peralta streets about 7:30 o'clock last night, and mystery is attached to the manner in which the runaway occurred, as the horse is known to be gentle and not given to easy fright. There is a possibility that she was the victim of a hold-up.

Mrs. Bonkofsky drove to San Francisco yesterday afternoon, accompanied by her father-in-law, a paralytic. She was met on the other side of the bay by her husband, Charles, who conducts a cafe at 1429 Webster street. Leaving the buggy at the ferry, the wife boarded a car for her father-in-law's home, while his son took her place in the vehicle.

All three met again at the elder Bonkofsky's house, and having seen that his father was safely inside, Bonkofsky drove his wife to the ferry, where he left her to continue her journey to this city while he returned to his place of business. This was about 6 o'clock.

WOMAN FOUND UNCONSCIOUS.

An hour and a half later Mrs. Bonkofsky was discovered by a number of pedestrians lying unconscious in the roadway near the corner of Fourteenth and Peralta streets. Near by was the buggy, but the horse had disappeared.

It was subsequently captured some distance from the scene of the apparent accident.

The woman was carried at once to a drug store at Cypress street, a block away, and the police patrol summoned. Arriving at the Receiving Hospital, Drs. Bell and Riggan were called and they made every effort to restore her to consciousness, but thus far they have not succeeded in getting her to talk.

They diagnosed her case as concussion of the brain.

Bonkofsky, as was his usual custom, returned to this city at an early hour this morning on the last boat.

Upon reaching his home he became frightened when he found his wife was

VERY LITTLE HOPE FOR SENATOR LUKENS

SENATOR G. R. LUKENS.

Three Ounces of Blood Found Pressing on the Brain of the Wounded Statesman.

The physicians are making a heroic effort to save the life of Senator G. R. Lukens.

His chances for recovery at noon today were not as good as they were last night. The physicians say he has about an even chance for his life, but friends who have seen him today fear for the worst, and say he has only one chance in fifty.

Dr. W. S. Porter, the attending physician, remained by the bedside of his patient at Fabiola hospital all last night and all today. He hopes for the best, but fears the worst.

Senator Lukens is semi-conscious and appears to be in great pain. He would not now be alive were it not for the operation.

The physicians, when they removed the scalp yesterday, found a blood-clot on the brain and removed three ounces of blood.

Dr. Porter states that it may take three days to decide the Senator's fate.

'AMERICANS SHOT ME,' BANKER SAYS

Police Feel Certain of Capturing Bold Thugs.

SAN FRANCISCO, OCT. 4.—DETECTIVES ED GIBSON AND CHARLES TAYLOR THIS AFTERNOON ARRESTED A SUSPECT WHOM THEY ARE CONFIDENT IS ONE OF THE TWO ROBBERS WHO YESTERDAY LOOTED THE JAPANESE BANK. THEY ARE NOW SWEATING THE PRISONER AND HAVE STRONG HOPES OF CAPTURING HIS ACCOMPLICE BEFORE NIGHTFALL.

AFTER CLOSELY QUESTIONING THE MAN ARRESTED THIS AFTERNOON BY DETECTIVES TAYLOR AND GIBSON ON THE SUSPICION THAT HE MIGHT HAVE BEEN ONE OF THE MEN WHO STRUCK DOWN THE JAPANESE BANKER, THE POLICE TURNED HIM FREE, HAVING COME TO THE CONCLUSION THAT HE HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE CASE.

SAN FRANCISCO, OCTOBER 4.—"TWO AMERICANS!" THESE ARE THE WORDS, REPEATED AGAIN AND AGAIN WITH PITIFUL TURATION, THAT FELL FROM THE PALE LIPS OF A. SASAKI, CASHIER OF THE LOOTED KIMONO KINKO OR GOLDEN GATE BANK, AS HE FOUGHT LAPPING CONSCIOUSNESS ALL LAST NIGHT AT THE CENTRAL EMERGENCY HOSPITAL.

"The police are working on a new theory that may lead to the arrest of the two thugs who yesterday looted the Golden Gate Bank, fatally wounded S. Murakata, the president, and struck down A. Sasaki, the cashier, who now hovers between life and death at the Central Emergency Hospital.

"The police are holding up the names of all white depositors of the bank. They believe the daring thugs may have deposited money in the bank in order to cover up their tracks. The bank employees are being questioned.

"It is unusual for white men to deposit money in a Japanese bank in San Francisco and the detectives are now busy investigating the white depositors of the institution. If the robbers did deposit money there it was probably done under some name. It will be a thin thread to follow up but it may give the police a starting point to work on.

"By the bedside of A. Sasaki the two victims of the murderous assault, do active and anxious conversation, waiting, listening with strained ears to every syllable that falls from the lips of the State Bureau men, who have already secured two Americans of the crime.

REAL, REAL, LOVE LETTERS

"I COULD NOT SLEEP ALL NIGHT, THINKING OF YOU!"

Girl Brings Breach of Promise Suit Against Wealthy Mining Man and His Sweet Little Notes Are a Feature of the Case, for They Just Breathe Love! Love! Love!

As he was about to leave Police Judge Smith's courtroom this morning, having been freed from a charge of battery preferred against him by his former sweetheart, Martin A. Williams, a wealthy mine promoter from Tonopah, was served with notice that he had been sued for $10,000 in the courts of Santa Clara county for alleged breach of promise by Miss Belle Tomlinson, who had had him arrested on a misdemeanor charge in this city.

Williams stated that he would contest the suit as he had the misdemeanor charge placed against him by the young woman who was his fiancée. Further than this he would say nothing in regard to the case.

MEET IN OAKLAND

Williams met Miss Tomlinson in this city last June. She was employed as a waitress in a local restaurant, having come here from San Jose where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tomlinson reside at 15 Santa Teresa street. It is said that it was a case of love at first sight with Williams, and he told Miss Tomlinson of his infatuation for her and offered to give her the money she earned in the restaurant in order that she might return home and get work.

After remaining in Oakland some time Williams returned to Tonopah, happy in the thought that he and Miss Tomlinson were to be married.

MILLMEN'S STRIKE THREATENS TO SPREAD THROUGHOUT UNIONS

It was announced this afternoon that the Wilson mill, on Franklin street, near Eleventh, had agreed to pay the 25 per cent raise in wages demanded and that the mill was started this morning with five men at work preparing stock for a complete resumption of labor.

The full force of about fifty men is to be put to work next Monday morning.

The bone of contention between the mill owners and the Contractors' Association and the Building Trades Council representing the various unions engaged in construction work, is the question of grading wages, or of paying on the basis of a straight minimum wage rate.

The union men demand an increase of all wages, that of carpenters to be advanced to $5.

The employers insist that, as since the earthquake there are many engaged in the building trades not capable of the efficient labor of a skilled mechanic. They wish to grade the carpenters wages, from $4 minimum to $6, according to efficiency, and the other unions on the same scale. This the union men will not agree to TO GRANT DEMANDS.

The millmen's strike is still resting. The millmen's Union 550 is subject entirely to the orders and disposal of the Building Trades Council.

The California Sash and Door Company, in West Oakland, employing a small force of millmen, will grant the raise from $3.50 per day to $4.00, as demanded by the striking union, on Thursday, October 11. The millmen have not ceased their work in that establishment, and it is very unlikely that they will be called upon to do so. (Continued on Page Two.)

BIG GRASS FIRE RAGING BACK OF COUNTRY CLUB

A big grass fire is raging in the hills back of the Country Club. The fire started last evening and continued to spread during the night, until this morning; it made its way far beyond Lake Temescal. The fire was started by refugees who were living in tents, many of whom were burned out.

LADS WOULD SEE WORLD; ONE TRIES OAKLAND FIRST

This Boy Starts His Tour on This Side Bay.

Bert Tinnin, a young runaway from San Francisco, was caught in this city last night and returned to his parents across the bay. Young Tinnin had decided to make a tour of the world and wanted to see Oakland first. He was found wandering aimlessly about the streets and was taken to the police station.

This Lad's Efforts Are Concluded With a Spanking.

Earl Mason, a young lad who had bravely started out to go it alone, was arrested by Policeman Cross last night and was planning to take a freight train out of town. He was returned to his father, N. C. Mason of 121 Slight street, and his dreams of touring the world were dissipated by a good spanking delivered by his father.

REAL LOVE LETTERS IN SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Tomlinson would be married in July. Everything ran smoothly and Williams was wild in his infatuation for the young woman whom he had asked to be his bride, and who had answered "yes."

Excerpts from the letters which Williams wrote to his fiancée are as follows:

COULDN'T SLEEP ALL NIGHT.

"Oakland, Cal., June 3, 1906: My Dear Sweetheart—Please excuse lead pencil. Hope you are well. I wish you had come with me to Oakland. I could not sleep all night, thinking of you. You do not know, little girl, how much I love you. I can do nothing without you. If you would only come and bring your trunk with you, you would make me the happiest man in the world. I will marry you at any time and place you say. Oh, little girl, if you only knew how much I love you. From your sweetheart, MARTIN."

Another of the love-breathing letters is as follows:

BEEN EATING TO MUCH.

"Tonopah, Nev., June 14, 1906: My Dear Little Sweetheart Belle—I will now write you a few lines. I have been very busy since I came back. I received two letters from you and I tell you, little girl, the trouble with you is that you have been eating in the restaurants too much. I wish you were here with me. I am going to remain here a year and hold on to my property because I think Tonopah is to be a great town. All right, dear, I know you don't want to have your pictures taken and send me one, for if you did you would not have enough to go around to all your sweethearts, and I would not get one, anyway. From your sweetheart, MARTIN."

A third letter in which Mr. Williams says that Mrs. Tomlinson is keeping his sweetheart away from him, is as follows:

WOULD COMMIT SUICIDE.

"Tonopah, Nev., June 18, 1906: My Dearest Sweetheart Belle—I hope to God I will be dead soon. I would have committed suicide long ago if I could drink. Your mother keeps you from me. I love you more and more each day. You show such good sense in buying. I will come to Oakland soon and buy you a diamond ring. I long to see you and put it on your little finger. Your sweetheart, MARTIN."

BREATHED OF LOVE.

About two weeks ago Williams returned from Tonopah and went to San Jose to visit Miss Tomlinson. It is claimed that while at her home Williams found a letter addressed to her from Harry Friedman, who is now in to the young woman.

Tomlinson, it is claimed, then invited Miss Tomlinson and her mother to Oakland, and that while at his boarding place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Duggan, at 1266 Franklin street, he attempted to take back the rings and watch which he had given Miss Tomlinson during their engagement.

The young woman claimed that while doing so Williams struck her and threw her to the floor. She then had him arrested on a charge of battery.

SERVED WITH WARRANT.

Williams was before Judge Smith this morning and testimony was taken in the case. Miss Tomlinson testified as to the battery upon her, but this was denied by Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Duggan, who testified for him. The case was dismissed and as Williams was leaving the courtroom he was served with notice of the breach of promise suit by Attorney M. A. Gabriel of San Jose, who has been retained by Miss Tomlinson.

In the breach of promise suit, Miss Tomlinson prays for damages to the amount of $10,000, claiming that her affections had been trifled with to that extent.

the house and went to the livery stable. There he learned that the horse and buggy had not come back yet.

There was nothing to do but to seek the aid of the police, but at first they knew nothing of the woman's whereabouts.

HUSBAND IS MYSTIFIED.

Subsequently they investigated the police patrol records and discovered that Mrs. Bonkotsky was at the Receiving Hospital, at which place the husband arrived at 3 a. m.

"I cannot account for my wife's accident," he said to a TRIBUNE representative this morning at the hospital. "The horse was not a fractious one, and although I visited the scene of the runaway, the mystery is still unsolved. Evidently it was run into by another wagon."

"Do you think she could have been the victim of a hold-up?" he was asked. "Possibly, but we found the $61 in her pocket that I gave her before leaving the city and her gold watch and chain intact."

"It was dark at the time though, and she might have been a mark for a highwayman, who became alarmed when the horse bolted."

HELSINGFORS, FINLAND, Oct. 4.—

Twenty-nine cases of arms which arrived here on the Russian steamer Hamid under false invoices were landed at this port and subsequently destroyed.

FIRE ALARMS AT BOTH ENDS

Department Called Three Times to West and East Oakland.

Three alarms from West Oakland called out the fire department this morning and a similar number rushed out the fire ladders last night. All the fires were small, but for a time threatened to be lively.

This morning one of the employees of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson started a fire in a pile of rubbish and burning particles were blown among a number of empty barrels, which were consumed. The fire department was called out but the blaze had been extinguished before its arrival. A few moments later a fire started in the restaurant conducted by Charles Hies, at Sixteenth street station.

The fire department, which had been called to the other fire but a few blocks away, responded, and the restaurant fire was put out, after $50 damage had been done. A third alarm was turned in from West Oakland, but this proved to be a false one.

Last night a lamp exploded in the home of L. E. Unskean at 1231 Twenty-third avenue, and Unskean was painfully burned, while extinguishing the blaze that resulted. The fire department was called, but was not needed.

Another alarm called the fire fighters to the home of R. Tyler, at 1273 Thirteenth avenue. The ivy clinging to the house, had caught fire, supposedly from flying sparks. There was but little damage.

The third alarm was for a chimney fire in the home of C. McKeeney, 904 Fourth street.

MILLMEN'S STRIKE THREATENS UNION

At last night's meeting of the Employers and Contractors Association, the demands of the cement workers for an increase of 33 per cent were referred to the conference committee of the association. This disposition was made of the following demands:

Housemovers, increase from $4 to $5; lathers, from $2.50 to $3.50 per thousand, or $5 for day work; bricklayers' hodcarriers, from $4 to $5; plasterers' hodcarriers, from $4 to $5; cement workers' laborers, $3 to $4; helpers, from $3.50 to $5; finishers, from $4.50 to $6; carpenters, $4 to $5.

The demand made by the lathers' union, for an increase from $2.50 to $3.50 per thousand, was rejected by the association, before being referred to the conference committee.

COMMITTEE CHOSEN.

The following named were appointed as the conference committee, for the settlement of all labor difficulties: Arthur Arlett, master bricklayers; L. Kendall, Mill Owners' Association; Richard Gardner, master painters; George Schmidt, Master Metal Workers; A. H. McKown, Master Plumbers; H. M. McCulloch, Master Carpenters; Joseph McGowan, Master Plasterers; J. R. D. Mackenzie, Master Roofers; G. H. Chick, Master Cement Workers; H. L. Brackett, Master Electricians; Dudley Euell, Master House Movers.

LATHERS MAY GO OUT.

While a strike of the Carpenters' Union is imminent, it is more than likely that the lathers will be the first to follow the millmen, in walking out. The Employers and Contractors' Association is the directing agency of the master craftsmen, and while the demands of the lathers are still before the conference committee, the disposition shown by the general body to oppose the granting of them is an indication the union must either retract or strike. The union authorities decline to state what course will be followed.

The millmen are holding a conference today in San Francisco, but the outcome is not yet known.

GUARDIAN GIVES INTO COURT

Brings an Action to Recover Arthur Magill's Valuable Plats.

Arthur E. Magill, through his guardian A. L. McPherson, has filed a suit against Harry Reiser, whose residence is presumed to be Chicago, asking that the court set aside a deed, which he claims the defendant "procured through fraud, misrepresentation and undue influence." The deed in question, plaintiff asserts, covers the Magill apartment house and property at Thirtieth and Castro streets, and Reiser is alleged to have obtained the document on August 1. Reiser is a brother-in-law of Jerome Protter, an attorney who is charged with being the man who caused young Magill to dissipate his fortune of $25,000 until he had but $10,000 or more left. Magill recently brought suit against Ora C. Kenilson and John Doe parties, to have a blanket mortgage on his entire property set aside. In this case he states that Reiser gave him no consideration for the deed to apartment house property.

leather boot for emphasis, that they proposed to attire themselves just as they please.

Now the whole University is discussing the peek-a-boos and the subject was a favorite topic of conversation at luncheon today in the college girls' fraternities.

LECTURE STIRS TROUBLE.

The following was the talk by Dr. Brownell that started all the trouble: "There is no one in the world who loves better than I, to see the graceful curve of a full neck, but that is as much as should be shown. 'Never before have such beautiful waists been worn as this year, with their low necks and short sleeves and their laces and embroidery, and never before did their enhance so well the charm of a girl's figure.'"

TOO INDECENT.

"But no girl has any right who considers herself decent, to expose the shoulders, back and chest to the gaze of the public. I know it is a great temptation for girls to wear décolleté evening gowns, but it causes comment which is anything but favorable, and girls who wish to be admired by the other sex should not do it."

"The worst kind of waist that has appeared so far, is the so-called peek-a-boos, of such thin, gauzy material, that they have lost their purpose as a waist."

Of course, no girl in college would wear such a thing. The cause amusement and talk among the men that is anything but desirable.

THE UNDERWAIST.

If a proper sort of underwaist were worn with them, there would be no objection, but these are often as flimsy and gauzy as the peek-a-boos waist itself.

"Highly polished finger nails go with a painted face. A person is healthy there is a natural polish and glow to the nails, so that the vulgar practice may well be abolished."

UNITED RAILROADS MUST FACE CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The officials of the United Railroads will be haled into the Police Court today to answer for violating the Penal Code by running street cars without fenders.

A complaint against the company was drawn last night under the direction of the District Attorney. The complaint was sworn to by R. W. Harrison.

MAKES DEFENSE FOR THE RAILROAD

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—T. A. Monroe, traffic manager of the Union Pacific Railroad Company testified today in defense of that railroad before the Interstate Commerce Commission regarding an allowance of 1 1/2 cents per hundred weight on grain said to have been granted the Denver, Elgin & Chicago railroad. Monroe denied that this allowance was in the nature of a rebate.

ATTEMPT TO KILL BY BOMB

PET CAT GOES MAD; ATTACKS GIRL

EASTON, Pa., Oct. 4.—When Miss Helen Ames approached her pet cat today the animal suddenly sprang and bit her, and sank its claws and teeth into her bare arm. She threw the cat away, but it made another leap and tore patches of skin and flesh from the arm. Miss Ames finally dove the cat away with a broomstick and it was afterwards shot. It is thought that the cat became madened by its being fed raw meat a short time before.

A. J. PILLSBURY TELLS OF STOCKTON HOSPITAL

Secretary of Board of Examiners Gives Facts and Figures About State Institution.

The following article is contributed by Arthur J. Pillsbury, secretary of the Board of Examiners at Sacramento:

EDITOR TRIBUNE: As soon as California began to be a State it began to make provision for taking care of its unfortunate, by establishing a State general hospital at Stockton. To this general hospital the insane were sent, but it was found not to be quite the place for them, and, in 1853, the general hospital was abolished and an insane asylum was established in its stead.

This was unfortunate in part and in part highly commendable. It was proper to establish an asylum for the insane, but the State general hospital should have been perpetuated, growing year by year to meet the growing demand until by new California, without doubt, have a State general hospital the equal of that of Massachusetts, a public charity of unsurpassed beneficence.

BOASTED WITH A DONATION.

Captain Weber, of revered memory, gave the State of California one hundred acres of choice land adjoining the town of Stockton to be used for asylum purposes, and since then twenty-nine acres more have been added by purchase to the plot, which has been built upon and adorned until it has in the State no rival as a park unless it be the capital grounds at Sacramento. Some of the ground was low lying and all of it was adobe, but it has been filled in and enriched from time to time with thousands of cart loads of sedimentary "silt" from the bed of the Calaveras river, until it is now all productive and well drained.

IT GREW AND GREW.

The asylum was opened in July, 1853, and by the end of that year had 102 patients. In ten years more it had 583, and in another decade 1156, by which time the State had faced the problem of establishing another asylum and had broken ground at Napa. On the day of my last visit to Stockton hospital, September 20, 1906, there were confined in the institution 533 women and 1184 men. Added to this total of 1842 persons, whose processes of cerebration do not sufficiently accord with those of other people outside to warrant their being at large; there are 55 attendants in the male wards, 43 attendants in the female department, 15 employees on farm and in dairy, and enough officers, engineers, mechanics, etc., to bring the population up to a round 2,000 persons to be fed and clothed and generally cared for at public expense.

HOW THEY ARE HOUSED.

Of the old, original hospital of 1852 little or nothing remains. The work of rebuilding with permanent brick structures began in the fifties and kept on, piecemeal, until an aggregate of $248,000 had been expended in tearing down and building greater what is now known as the "old" hospital, which still accommodates between 500 and 600 men patients.

The beautiful and commodious Woman's hospital was built between 1864 and 1868, at a cost of $250,000. It was built to accommodate 500 patients, but there are now 655 in it, and always room for one more, although not always easy to tell where to put another one.

The splendid appearing men's main hospital was completed in 1885 at a cost of $224,000. Other buildings, accessory to the general use, have been built from time to time until the State now has invested in buildings something more than $800,000. For ten years or more there has been little or no new building done at Stockton, but only remodeling in order to make room for more patients.

CONDITION OF BUILDINGS.

The hospital buildings are all staunch and were uninjured by the earthquake of April 18, but this is not saying that they would have withstood such a shock as that which threw Agency down, for they would not, and yet they are distinctly better built buildings than those at Agnew ever were.

But they are not modern, and the State should build no more like them. The plan of having one hallway down the center with rooms of both sides is not good for an insane hospital, although it may do for a hotel. In a hospital the patients have to live in the hallways and only sleep in the adjacent rooms. A better type of building is one that has airy, sunny, octagonal projecting bay window like rooms either at the end or in the middle of the wards, letting in the great flood of light and constituting sitting rooms instead of using the hallways for sitting rooms. The buildings at Stockton make a most disagreeable team this end, but the octagonal projections were for two small and project far too little to make the wards what they should be.

MODELS IN FURNISHINGS.

There are twenty-six wards in the male department of Stockton hospital, includ-

ROCKEFELLER DECLAINS AGAINST REGULATION OF PRIVATE INTERESTS

FINANCIAL TALKS OF GOVERNMENT CONTROL SAYS ACTION WOULD HINDER NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

AVOIDANCE OF HIS SUBPENA

Why Magnate Did Not Respond to Summons to Testify in the Courts.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 4.—The Plaindealer today prints an interview with John D. Rockefeller, in which the latter comments on the demand for government regulation of so-called private industries and makes a strong plea for national development. Mr. Rockefeller is quoted in part as follows:

"If we limit opportunity we will have put the brakes on our national development. Will the individual strive for success if he knows the hard won prize is to be snatched from his fingers at the last by his government? We are still too young a nation to begin tearing down. We must build up, build up for years to come. The very children in the schools should be taught the need of our development."

FRENCH HATE US.

Speaking of his recent visit to France, Mr. Rockefeller said: "The French people hate us, and they will crush us if they can. They want our money. They want the patronage of our tourists. But they hate us. They never let slip an opportunity to take quick advantage of our mistakes. This is a struggle for supremacy. We must win or they will, and there will be no quarter for us if they win. And now there is Japan, rising in the East to a power we cannot estimate. We cannot forget what her competition will be; we do not know the resources of the new territory which she controls; we cannot guess the commercial and industrial possibilities of the Japanese."

AIDING ENEMY.

"At this critical stage we are giving the enemy ammunition to fire at us. He is quick to seize this advantage. Take the attack we made upon our own packing business, for instance. I know none of the men in the beef trade; I never dealt with them, nor was I ever associated even indirectly with their business or themselves. But it is safe to assume from the proportions of their industry that they are sound business men. And it is safe to assume, too, that no business could have been built to such proportions on such false principles or by such unsound methods as they were charged with."

WATCHED EFFECT.

"I was in Europe when the attack was made at home upon these men and their industry and I could watch the effect of it there at close range. Those fellows abroad snatched at our own charges against our own business with the greatest glee. They used them promptly as ammunition with which to attack America and everything American, especially American manufactured products and trade. I do not believe there was a line of American goods sold abroad that was not injured, or an American agent doing business abroad whose work was not hampered by this."

MUSTN'T TEAR DOWN.

"We are too young a nation for this darkness that precedes the new dawn, with all the tranquility of a California summer night."

SOME OTHER OLD-TIMERS.

Much remains that cannot be said, but it may be of interest to know that Mrs. Sterling has been in the hospital since 1862; that William Harrison Light came in 1863 and is still there; that Herman Bauer has been an attendant for forty-three years; that Paul Jensen has been an attendant for thirty-seven years, and has broken records for forty-three years, and, though growing old, is good for years to come.

BURGLARS SECURE LITTLE PLUNDER

A thief entered a saloon at Sixth and Washington streets yesterday, and going to a closet, stole a suit of clothes and a gold watch, the property of Bernard Meyers, who resides at 657 Sixth street. The thief has been reported to the police.

The home of Frank Watson at 266 Thirteenth street was ransacked Tuesday night and the place was left in a shambles, which he gained by pulling two ladders together. Little of value was secured by the thief. Watson is a member of the realty firm of Woodward & Watson.

DISCHARGED WITH WARNING.

With an admonition to behave himself and not act like a child, Morris Springer, a young prize fighter, was discharged by Police Judge Smith this morning. Springer was arrested some weeks ago on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. This charge was dismissed and he was released on $1000 bond. He was charged yesterday and he was found not guilty.

LICENSE COLLECTIONS BIGGER.

The license collections for September of this year show quite an increase over the same period last year. During last month $10,713 in license fees were collected, while in September, 1905, $9,451 was collected, showing an increase of $1,262.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER.

tearing down. Our position is by no means secure. It is like repeating A, B, C, to say that we cannot consume our total production. We must sell abroad or do less business. Reducing the volume of our production means less work, less wages, less business transacted, at the very least. It is checking our development instead of furthering it. Is it common sense then, to handicap our export trade at home, to attack the good name of our business for the benefit of our foreign rivals?

COMMON SENSE.

"Is it common sense to tell our young men, on whom the future must depend, that they can hope for no other reward for carrying our commercial flag forward than frenzied attacks at home, and all the handicaps their own government can pile upon their business to satisfy the violent prejudice enacted against them?"

Referring to a subpoena recently issued, requiring him to appear in court in an action against the Standard Oil Company, Mr. Rockefeller said:

THE SUBPENA.

"While I was in active business I used to always respond. But now I am not in a position to give these inquiries people the information they want. They know that as well as I do. If they really wanted information it is other men they would summon, the men who have the information they want. They know that also. So I am reluctantly compelled to conclude that it is notoriety they want rather than information. I yield to no man in respect for law, but I am unable to see where the little notoriety an inquisitor might get from putting me on the stand would serve the ends of justice. So I avoid the ordeal, with its exhaustion, when I can, and preserve my strength and quiet."

YOUNG PEOPLE TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Interest is increasing daily in the Young People's Interdenominational Missionary Conference, to be held October 15 to 18, in the First Presbyterian church.

The promotion committee has sent out letters to all the churches, young people's societies, and Sunday schools of every denomination in Northern California, calling attention to the conference, and enclosing literature calculated to arouse interest in the conference. Large posters have been sent to all the Sunday schools, to be posted up in the churches.

LOSES TWO HUSBANDS AT THE SAME TIME

PROVIDENCE, Oct. 4.—Within two weeks of the time when the supposedly dead husband of the woman to whom he was then married reappeared, Thomas Curley suddenly died.

Up to about nine years ago there was a very popular young man in the Olneyville section of the city and his name was George Nickerson. He was happily married and had a daughter 5 years of age. A sudden trouble arose and with the breaking out of the Spanish war Nickerson one day disappeared from his home. Until Friday, September 14, his many local friends had supposed him to be dead, as reports received were shortly after his disappearance were to that effect. On that day a well-dressed man called at one of the local mills and asked to see Miss Mattie Nickerson, who is now about 18 years of age. The visitor said he was the girl's father. Nickerson told her his story and planned to place in a bank her name the $7000 which he asserted he had saved.

REPUBLICAN RALLY AT MISSION SAN JOSE

Candidates on the County Ticket Are Given a Warm Reception in the Country.

At the foot of Mission Peak, in the little town of Mission San Jose, the Republican county candidates last night held forth and were accorded an unusual reception by the Republicans of the quiet old settlement. By train, bus and automobile the speakers and aspirants for office arrived in the village all afternoon, and by nightfall most of the men on the ticket were present. In anticipation of the occasion the residents had decorated the meeting place, a huge bonfire had been prepared and the brass band was on hand to lead forth on the winds the notes of national anthems.

P. J. CROSBY SPEAKS.

Isaac H. Whitfield of Mission was chairman of the meeting and conducted the program with exceptional ability and by his clever introductions and sincere tributes to the speakers aroused much enthusiasm. Peter J. Crosby of Hayward was the speaker of the evening, and during the course of his remarks said glowing tributes to the work of the Republican party throughout the land. He mentioned the great work and accomplishments of the party in the national capital and was loudly applauded for his remarks on President Theodore Roosevelt. He made a resume of the work of Congress and the administration in its international program, pointed to the exceptional accomplishments of the various secretaries of departments and then spoke of the local candidates and how necessary it was to rid the Republic of its present ills, both local and national. "Elect everything is Republican," said he. "From the smallest man on the ticket to the representative in Washington, because that is the way the Republican party has maintained its wonderful strength in the United States today and that is the way that the future of America is the greatest country on earth today. Wages are higher, property is sweeping over the land, everybody is happy and content and everybody has confidence in the present administration, so keep it there, make sure of your future and the future of your children."

OTHER SPEAKERS.

The candidates in turn addressed the meeting, they being Charles Thomas (an assessor, Judge Wastie, Harris and Ogden, Everett Brown, candidate for district attorney, John P. Cook, candidate for county clerk; James B. Barber, candidate for tax collector; George S. Peters, candidate for county auditor; Sheriff Frank Barnett, Assemblyman Stobridge; Public Administrator George Gray, P. A. Halland, candidate for county surveyor; George Erick, candidate for clerk of the board of supervisors; Dr. Charles Tidwell, candidate for coroner; M. J. Kelly, candidate for treasurer, and others.

REAL ESTATE MEN TO MEET MAKE WAR ON THE TRAMPS

Prof. Plehn Will Give an Interesting Lecture Tomorrow Night.

At the meeting of the Oakland Real Estate Association Friday evening, October 5, at 7:30 p. m. in Forester's Hall, corner of Thirteenth and Clay streets, Professor Carl Plehn will address the meeting on the subject of "Reform of Taxation in California."

As this is the last meeting of the Oakland Real Estate Association before the annual convention of real estate agents of the State to be held in Fresno, October 11, 12 and 13, and as Professor Plehn is one of the commissioners appointed by the Legislature to draft new laws on taxation, it is desired to have a large attendance at this meeting. As the meeting is open to the public, all those interested in the subject are invited to attend. All real estate agents and their wives and children are expected to attend this convention at Fresno, and the local association there have made extensive arrangements for their entertainment. Ladies are especially invited to attend Professor Plehn's lecture as they are largely interested in the subject as owners, and as residents of this city. All real estate agents should give up one evening in each month to the study of the business in general, and to their city in particular, as they are the guiding factor in the city's destiny. Final arrangements for the excursion to Fresno will be announced.

Judge Smith Sentences Hoboes to Long Terms in the City Prison.

War against the tramps who have already commenced to infest this city has been started by the police and four of the happy-go-luckies were given the limit by Police Judge Smith this morning, being sentenced to fifty days each.

The men who were sentenced are William Newyer, Anthony Kelly, Thomas Cushing and Charles Smith. Eight other tramps, who were arrested in the railroad yards for violating the sleeping out ordinance, were discharged, because of the failure of the railroad officers to swear out complaints against them.

The tramps have been finding soft places to sleep in, in the box cars at freight yards of the Southern Pacific Company at the foot of Kirkham street. The hobos will be busted as often as discovered and placed under arrest.

The men who were released this morning were ordered out of town by Judge Smith, who stated that the citizens of this city did not want any of that ilk prowling about the public streets.

ALLEGED THIEF GETS OFF EASY

Instead of having a felony charge placed against him, F. T. Bush was charged with petit larceny and after pleading guilty this morning, he was sentenced to six months in the city prison by Police Judge Smith.

It was alleged that Bush had stolen a gold watch and chain from M. J. Hulse. The victim departed, however, and the police filed a misdemeanor charge against Bush from information and belief.

DIES SUDDENLY.

Heart failure is supposed to have ended the life yesterday afternoon of Frank B. Ewart, a printer who resided at 1211 Howard street, San Francisco at the corner of Seventh and Clay streets. The unfortunate man was picked up in an unconscious condition having fallen to the sidewalk. He died en route to the hospital.

NEVADA'S FOREMOST MINING ENGINEER,
ON THE

Eagle's Nest Fairview Mining Company

Goldfield, Nev., Sept. 16, 1906.

To the President and Directors
 The Eagle's Nest Fairview Mining Company,
 Goldfield, Nevada.

GENTLEMEN:—

I beg to submit a brief report on the surface showings of the property owned by you in the Fairview District, consisting of the Tisson, Eagle's Nest No. 1, Lookout, and Lookout No. 1 claims.

This property is bounded on the north by the Dromedary Hump Mining Company, on the southeast by the Fairview Eagle Mining Company and the Nevada Hills Mining Company, and on the southwest by the Fairview Mining Company—in fact, it is in the center and surrounded by the best properties in Fairview.

My examination of this ground was made for the purpose of deciding where we should do our permanent work and required quite a lot of consideration on account of the many good ledges which traverse our ground. I finally decided on a tunnel to be driven on a ledge which crosses the Tisson, where we found an excellent showing. The tunnel starts at the base of the hill on which the ledge crops and will continue on its strike a distance of 150 feet to our objective point—the apex of the hill and directly under the location post of the Tisson. The ledge crops the entire distance and shows ore at the grass roots running $60 to $85 a ton. A second ledge running northeast and southwest and cropping for 200 feet, showing $30 to $40 a ton, will be intersected by this tunnel at a depth of over 100 feet.

On the Lookouts are several good-looking quartz ledges, which assay from a few dollars up, and which will be thoroughly prospected at once.

On the Eagle's Nest No. 2, there is a fine showing of manganese ore, and within a few feet of our line high grade shipping ore is being sacked on Wingfield's property.

In conclusion, I would state that in my opinion this is a first-class mining proposition and one of the very best showings in Fairview.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. CAMPBELL,
 Consulting Engineer, Vice-President and General Manager.

NEVADA'S FOREMOST MINING ENGINEER, 1906

ON THE

As-You-Like-It Manhattan Mining Company

Goldfield, Nev., Sept. 22, 1906.

To the President and Directors
 As-You-Like-It Manhattan Mining Company,
 Goldfield, Nevada.

GENTLEMEN:—

In accordance with your instructions I beg to submit to you a brief report on the "As-You-Like-It" group of claims, owned by the As-You-Like-It Manhattan Mining Company, and situate in the Manhattan Mining District.

This group consists of four claims, namely: The "As-You-Like-It," "Lizard Fraction," "Keystone" and "Juniper" lode mining claims, lying within a short distance of the Union No. 9 mine of the Dexter group and in the immediate locality of the Little Grey, Indian Camp, Stray Dog, and other well known mining properties of the camp. The area of the property comprises approximately 60 acres of valuable mineral ground.

During the past month exhaustive surface exploration has been in progress, with the result that three veins of ore have been disclosed that prospect well at grass roots. With a view to exploring these veins at depth, three shafts have been put down—the deepest one having attained a depth of 39 feet. The bottom of this shaft shows values across its entire width and is all vein matter. This is known "As-You-Like-It" shaft, and will be continued as permanent workings to systematically explore the ore bodies at depth.

The "Juniper" shaft is down 37 feet and also prospects in gold for the entire width of the shaft. A depth of 17 feet has been reached on the shaft on the "Keystone" claim of the group, exploring a vein, that traverses the Indian Camp mine and crops on the northwest portion of the "Keystone." This vein also shows gold in several different places along its strike.

The location of the property in the immediate vicinity of such well known and thoroughly proved mines as the Stray Dog, Indian Camp, Jumping Jack, Union No. 9, and Little Grey gives to it very great prospective value and warrants the prosecution of exhaustive development work so as to make a permanent dividend-paying proposition.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. CAMPBELL,
 Consulting Engineer, Vice-President and General Manager.

Both of these stocks will be listed on the important exchanges of San Francisco, San Jose, Lake, Goldfield and New York immediately after subscriptions are closed, and will, beyond a doubt, at once command a premium. We recommend both stocks as high class speculative investments and probable big future dividend-payers. Reservations should be made by telegraph, to insure consideration, and remittances in full, by bank draft or certified check, must be forwarded immediately after allotment is made. Otherwise allotment will be rendered void. The right is reserved to reduce or refuse any subscription tendered.

Be Fair and Reasonable.

Yesterday we printed a communication from a correspondent who demands an increase in the police force. We need more policemen, it is true, but Oakland is no worse off with respect to burglaries and hold-ups than is San Francisco, which has a police force relatively much larger than it had before the fire. Footpads and burglars are quite as active and successful across the bay as they are in Oakland. Our correspondent grossly errs in saying four-fifths of the cities of the United States having a population of 40,000 have a larger police force than Oakland. There is not a city of 40,000 inhabitants in this country with as large a police force as Oakland. If our friend will examine the year book of American municipalities he will find this to be a fact. He should remember that the population of this city was practically doubled within a week, producing an abnormal condition which has taxed the financial resources of the municipality beyond their limit. The sudden influx of population, bringing with it an equally sudden expansion of business, has confronted the municipal authorities with a number of grave problems which they are doing their best to solve. Amid the perplexities of increased demands in every direction, due to peculiar and unprecedented conditions, it does no good to exaggerate the situation and draw unjust comparisons not sustained by the facts. We ought to have twice as many policemen as are now on the force, but the city is without the money to pay them. The assessment roll was made up on March 1, while the enormous increase in population, business and property values has come since that time. Hence the municipal authorities will have to do the best they can with the means at their disposal till the beginning of the next fiscal year, when the growth of the community can be reflected in an expanded assessment roll. The law absolutely forbids the issuance of bonds to pay the running expenses of government; consequently the revenue from taxes, licenses, etc., is all the authorities can spend. The condition is one from which there is no escape, and it is useless, therefore, to abuse the town and rail at the officials for what cannot be immediately remedied.

The Case of Moyer and Haywood

A correspondent accuses THE TRIBUNE of suppressing or not printing news regarding Moyer and Haywood, the Colorado labor leaders, charged with procuring the assassination of former Governor Frank Steunenberg of Idaho. He has not read this paper carefully or consecutively, that is evident. We have not only published the general facts obtainable, but have commented on the record of Harry Orchard the chief witness for the prosecution, and his credibility as a witness. We have not expressed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of Moyer and Haywood because that is a question to be determined by the courts. The Steunenberg murder was a dastardly crime, and whoever perpetrated it ought to be hanged. If Moyer and Haywood are innocent, they should be exonerated, but if guilty they should be punished. In any event, they should have a fair trial, and the evidence sifted till the truth is established. The manner in which the accused men were taken out of Colorado and transported to Idaho had an ugly look, but the legality of the process is to be determined by the Federal courts. We are free to say, however, that there has been an evident attempt to convict the accused in advance of trial that merits popular condemnation. Moyer and Haywood were not given fair treatment, either after their arrival in Idaho, or before, but all this does not show whether they are innocent or guilty. Not having assisted in prosecuting them, THE TRIBUNE is not disposed to defend them, as we have no reliable evidence on which to base an opinion.

The persons who are complaining of the prevalence of crimes against property in Oakland should take notice that no bank in this city has been robbed, as yet, in broad daylight and the bank officers murdered in their counting rooms. Things are not quite as bad here as in San Francisco, and are no worse than they are in Los Angeles and Portland. The universal prosperity prevailing on the Pacific Coast has attracted a swarm of desperate criminals from all parts of the country, who find not only abundant opportunities for the exercise of their predatory talents out here, but concealment of their identity in the mass of new arrivals.

The announcement of a considerable increase in the police force and the installation of more electric lights will go far to allay the apprehension caused by the recent burglaries and hold-ups. It is proof, moreover, that the city officials are alive to their responsibilities and are doing all in their power to afford the public protection from the criminal element.

CUBA AND UNITED STATES.

The growing commerce of the United States with Cuba is shown by the statistics for the fiscal year 1906, which ended June 30. The increase in shipments to Cuba, while visible in many articles, occurs chiefly in the manufactures of iron and steel, of which the total exports to the island were $9,879,648, against $6,154,908 in 1905. The total American exports to Cuba aggregated $17,763,638 last year. This was 25 per cent greater than 1905, 75 per cent greater than in 1904, and about 120 per cent greater than in 1903. The imports from the island fell slightly below those of 1905, due to the fall in the price of sugar. Of the five articles forming the bulk of American imports from Cuba sugar amounted in value to $60,000,000, tobacco $13,500,000, cigars and cigarettes $4,000,000, iron ore $2,000,000, and bananas $1,000,000.

HOW SALES ARE MADE.

How an American machinery agent secured an order in Japan is related by the commercial agent of New South Wales in the Far East, as follows: It was a question of some lathes for a large factory which was being started. They were required of a certain size. The agent for the British firm said: "That is three inches longer than they are made, and we can make no alterations." The American said: "I will make them to any size you like." The American secured the order.

LOUISIANA SULPHUR ACTIVITY.

Shipments of sulphur from New Orleans, La., are steadily increasing each month, according to reports from that city, a statement being made that in one week in September over 12,000 tons went forward to New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore and other ports. Eastern and northern manufacturers, it is stated, find Louisiana sulphur well adapted to their needs for the manufacture of paper, and are buying large quantities of it.

Public Administrator Gray.

The office of Public Administrator is not important in a political sense, but it is a very necessary one. The Public Administrator is a general official guardian of the estates of deceased persons; his mission is to protect the property of the dead from seizure or spoliation, scrutinize all claims against it, and hold it in trust for those lawfully entitled to inherit it.

These duties demand the services of a just and faithful man who will use his best endeavors to carry out the intent and purpose of the law creating his office. Such a man is George Gray. Four years ago Mr. Gray, a plain citizen farmer, was elected Public Administrator, and his record in office justifies every claim made for his integrity and loyalty to his sense of duty. He has been a veritable watchdog of the estates of intestate persons. Distant heirs have found him a trusty friend and dishonest claimants an unyielding foe.

Mr. Gray is again a candidate for the position he holds, having been renominated by acclamation in the Republican convention. A man who has discharged his official duties so conscientiously and zealously as has Mr. Gray is entitled to re-election as a mark of public appreciation. To re-elect him is a duty the community owes itself in furtherance of the cause of good government. Good men should be retained in office on the same principle that employers in private pursuits retain in their service tried and trusted men.

However, George Gray has only proved himself to be in public office the same sort of a man he has always been in private life—a plain, square man, trying to do right and not finding the task a hard one because all his instincts are honorable. A man who has proved himself faithful to the dead as well as the living is one to be trusted again by the voters whose confidence he has once vindicated.

THE CASE OF MOYER AND HAYWOOD.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Availing myself of the invitation published in a recent edition of THE TRIBUNE, I think it would be of wide interest if you would give some information to your readers as to why all mention of the kidnapping of Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone has been excluded from THE TRIBUNE and other Republican papers for so long a time? And why, in your article anent Colorado politics, candidates, etc., you say not one word about Haywood's candidacy? That you are heartily ashamed of the record of the Republicans in Colorado is revealed by the phrase: "Gabbert was elected as a Populist," and you mention two of Gabbert's decisions establishing, or at least "legalizing," the outrages committed by Peabody and the Republican party. But you say not one word to indicate what those unspeakable outrages were. Is the Republican party degenerated into a defender of all forms of tyranny, perversion of law, justice and constitutional liberty? Or has the G. O. P. become an ostrich, pretending not to see what it most dreads and dare not combat? You mention Alva Adams, the Democratic nominee, as if he was the dread of the Republican machine in Colorado, when you are obliged to realize that W. D. Haywood, the Socialist nominee, aided by the dastardly record of Republican freebooters, constitutes the whole of that party's dread in Colorado. The nightmare of Mark Hanna—a contest for supremacy between the Republican party and Socialism—is on in Colorado, and the Socialists, thanks to the amazing acts of the mine owners' tools who have overturned, set aside or totally disregarded all laws, rights and common decency. Does the Republican party in California endorse the Republican party in Colorado and Idaho?

GIVE US MORE POLICE.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: Your editorial columns are filled daily boasting of the wonderful rapid strides Oakland has made in the past five months, claiming a population hereabouts of 225,000. If such is a fact, how is it that over four-fifths of the cities in the country, having about 40,000 population, have more policemen than Oakland? If your claim is well founded, then our police force should be at least five times more in numbers than it now has—especially when "hold-ups," robberies and burglaries are so numerous. Can't the City Council license lines of business that they don't and which other cities do and get additional revenue in order to give the inhabitants proper protection? The sooner it is done the better for Oakland—for this city is known the coast over as being the rendezvous of criminals and desperate characters, and their bold acts gives credence to the accusation.

EXPORT OF AMERICAN MEATS.

The export meat trade of the United States has not fallen off in the aggregate, other products having increased in lieu of the decline in canned goods. The meat and animal product shipments from Chicago amounted for the seven months ending with July to 1,675,436,262 pounds, against 1,391,938,756 pounds for the first seven months of 1905. The total for the month of July was 203,252,030 pounds, against 192,490,724 pounds in July last year. The canned meat shipments declined, however, from 8,732,550 pounds in July, 1905, to 4,830,975 pounds the same month this year. Dressed beef, cured meats and lard, however, showed very large increases in the export trade.

NEW ELECTRIC LAMP.

The "Osram" electric lamp is a new invention on the German market undergoing test. It replaces the carbon filament for glow lamps by fine wires of wolfram, which are claimed to employ only one-third of the energy heretofore required. A test at Charlottenburg showed that after use of 1000 hours there was an average loss of brilliancy of 6.3 per cent in the case of 25-candle-power lamps and 3.6 per cent in the 32-candle-power lamps. Of the sixteen lamps under test eleven were not damaged, and capable of continued use. This new lamp shares with the Osmium lamp the drawback that it can only be used hanging downward, but a technical writer says that it may be assumed with certainty that this disadvantage will be overcome.

BEAR TO SPEAK AT CONFERENCE

Interdenominational Gathering to Hear President of Southern College.

The promoters of the Young People's Interdenominational Missionary Conference are greatly elated over a telegram received from John Willis Baer, president of Occidental college, Los Angeles, saying that he will be present and speak during the conference, which is to be held in the First Presbyterian church, Oakland, October 15 to 18.

Mr. Baer is so endeared to the hearts of young people by his faithful and brilliant work as general secretary of the International Christian Endeavor society, that his coming will mean much to all young people, and secure a large delegation of admiring friends. The committee is also advised of the intended attendance of W. R. Lambuth, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., missionary secretary of the Methodist Episcopal church, S. W. H. Dr. Lambuth is reputed to be a most eloquent and inspiring speaker, and will ably represent his denomination.

EASTERN SPEAKERS.

The presence of Alexander Henry, D. D., of Philadelphia, Robert Spear, D. D., of New York and William Shaw of Boston mean much to not only the young people, but to all religious workers as well, as each represents and will speak for a different department of work.

Mr. Spear is ranked as one of the greatest men of the present time in religious work, being secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. He has never visited the coast, but many of his personal friends are here, and are looking forward with great pleasure to greeting him, and hearing his addresses.

WILL BE WELCOMED.

Dr. Alexander Henry will be welcomed by a host of Sunday school workers, as he is a member of the executive committee of the International Sunday School Association, which association includes in its membership all Sunday schools of all denominations, and whose lesson committee prepares the international Sunday school lessons, which are used nearly all the Sunday schools of the world.

William Shaw, treasurer of the International Society of Christian Endeavor, has a host of friends everywhere, and it is probable that a banquet will be arranged in his honor while in Oakland.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment committee, of which A. E. Coor is chairman, is planning to provide free entertainment for all the delegates from a distance who make application for it by October 10. He has addressed communications to every young people's society in Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley, requesting them to provide entertainment for ten delegates each.

RALLIES.

Thursday evening of this week the first rally will be held in the interest of the conference. Rev. Dwight E. Potter and other Oakland missionary enthusiasts will speak. Within the next week rallies will be held in Sacramento, Stockton, San Jose, Palo Alto, Santa Rosa, Vallejo and Napa. Dr. A. S. Kelly has arranged for these rallies, and will send out speakers from Oakland to address them.

RAILROAD RATES.

The railroads have granted special rates for the conference of one fare and one-third for the round trip by the certificate plan. Delegates must secure a certificate from the ticket agent when purchasing their tickets to Oakland, which, when signed by the secretary of the conference, will entitle them to a return ticket at one-third the regular fare. These rates are in effect for the going trip of October 5 to 18, and the return can be made between October 15 and 20. It is anticipated that the 3000 delegates planned for will be in attendance at the conference, as the churches, Sunday schools, young people's societies and missionary societies of Northern California are to send delegates, and that the work accomplished will be of great value to workers of all kinds.

HELD WILDCAT

BY TAIL

DECATUR, Ala., Oct. 4.—For what seemed to him, he says, a full half hour Caesar First, who lives at Garden City, held on for life to a wildcat's tail, not having courage enough to let go.

Mr. First had gone out hunting muscadines through the woods and noticed some near a large hollow log. Just as he was about to gather them he heard a growl and saw a tail protruding from the log.

Not being well versed in hunting lore he took it for a possum's tail and immediately caught hold of it. It was but a moment before he realized that the animal was of a more wicked nature.

For half an hour the wildcat endeavored to pull away and Mr. First held on, afraid that if the beast got loose it would attack him. At last Mr. First lost his grip and with a loud cry the wildcat issued from the other end of the log and bounded away into the woods.

Mr. First was scratched very badly on the hands, but otherwise unhurt.

HEARS FROM HUSBAND WANTED FOR BIGAMY

WILKESBARE, Oct. 4.—Trouser M. C. Funston, wanted here for bigamy, has written to his last wife, the daughter of W. C. Baker of Sycamoreville, near here, whom he deserted last week, two days after their marriage. He is in Philadelphia, but gives no address.

He says he will return in a few days. He has also written to Troop B, State police of which he was a member, asking that his trunk be sent on to Philadelphia. An effort will be made to apprehend him.

SOCIETY

WEDDINGS OF
EARLY WINTER

Event at the Mathews Home—
Other Affairs of Importance

A recent wedding of interest was that of Miss Maude Vera Johnson and Charles Edgar Burton Jr. which was solemnized at the home of the bride, Rev. William M. Martin, pastor of the First Street M. E. church of Alameda officiating.

The bride was attended by Miss Hazel Burton as maid of honor, Miss Florence Jones was the flower girl and Master Henry Jones the ring bearer. Robert McElroy attended the groom. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burton, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Pogue, Mr. and Mrs. Rolla V. Watt, Dr. and Mrs. Dixby, Miss Nellie Dudley, Mrs. Mary York Regula Hoffman, G. W. Coleman, Miss Marie Anderson, Miss Ingeborg M. Nielsen, Fred Muhlenberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. John, Charles Beck, Arthur Burton, Miss Hazel Burton, Miss Helen Burton, Alice Burton, George Burton, Miss Lillian Burton, Mrs. S. B. Discho, Miss Ruby Studley, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jones, Miss Abbie Jones, Miss Florence Jones, Miss Jessie Jones, Henry Jones, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Hillman, John E. Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. James R. McElroy, Robert McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. McElroy, Mrs. Alice De Wolf Stulley, Master George Stulley, Mrs. Cora Dyer, Miss Nellie Dyer, O. C. Gehring, F. E. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Stevens.

MATHEWS HENLEY.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Water J. Mathews on Webster street was the scene last evening of an elaborate wedding when Miss Pauline Mathews became the bride of Earl Henley.

The house was effectively decorated in pink and green, the pretty color scheme being carried out with asparagus ferns, palms and Cecil Brener roses. A bridal bower was formed in the drawing room where the young couple stood while the marriage service was read by Rev. E. B. Baker.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white elaborated with lace and tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl pendant, the gift of the groom.

Miss Hope Mathews, the maid of honor and only attendant, wore a pretty gown of white silk and carried bride roses.

Mrs. Mathews was crowned in gray silk trimmed with old point lace. (Clas Davidson acted as best man. The reception following the ceremony included only relatives and close friends of the bride and groom from the Mu Sigma Sigma sorority of Mills college and the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

The bride's table was decorated with lily roses and ferns and lighted with candelabra. When the bride's cake was cut, Miss Belle Sanford received the humble Miss Hope Mathews the ring, Dr. Baker the pennant and Charles Davidson the bachelorette button.

The young couple departed amid a shower of rice, and the bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Emily Aiken. After the honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Henley will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Mathews until the completion of their own home at Adams' Point.

DUNHAM PONTING.

The marriage of Miss Dora Lida Dunham and Charles H. Ponting was solemnized recently at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Frazier in Berkeley. The Rev. Dr. J. W. Buckham of the Pacific Theological Seminary performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Beatrice Deloitte of Sacramento while the bride's brother was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Ponting are to make their home in San Francisco where Mr. Ponting is a student of medicine.

SPARKS-BINDER.

The marriage of Miss Lillian Sparks and William Binder of San Jose was a pretty event of the week solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Buren Sparks. Rev. Mr. Mowbray of the First Congregational Church performed the ceremony. There were no attendants and the wedding was simple in detail.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES E. BURTON JR.

The drawing room was decorated with huckleberry and ferns and in a bower of green the nuptial vows were pledged.

After the informal reception, the bride and groom left for a honeymoon trip at Del Monte going later to their new home at San Jose.

Mr. Binder is an architect well known in San Jose and his bride is a graduate of the State Normal school in that city. For several years she has been a teacher in the Lincoln school and resigned her position last week.

A WEDDING

A wedding of more than local interest was that of Miss Mae Moran and Dr. W. Z. Dehl of Elly Nevada solemnized at Delmar chapel in San a Cruz county last Wednesday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Hennessy of Capitola. Dr. Dehl is a graduate of the medical department of the University and a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

STORKS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Berger are the happy parents of a little son who arrived a few days ago at their home.

CLUB MEETING

The Ladies of the Round Table met at the home of Mrs. Stuart Merrill on Seventh avenue. Instructive papers were read on the Homeric poems and the story of Demeter and Persephone by Mrs. J. F. Traves and Edna Jannett Merrill. The study of ancient history continues and during the coming week the ladies will read from modern writers beginning with Churchill's Constantine.

The members of the Sierra club were entertained last evening at the home of Miss Henry Plummer. The Good Cheer Winery club will meet next Monday with Mrs. Cunningham at her home on Tenth street instead of at the Plummer home.

COSMOS CLUB.

The members of a Cosmos Club will be the guests of Mrs. T. L. Barker at their second meeting which takes place on Monday next at the Barker home on Castro street.

AT LUNCHEON.

Miss Maude Edith Pope entertained today at an informal luncheon given at Idora Park guest garden. The complimented guest at this pleasant affair was Mrs. Constance Crawley.

AT HOME.

Mrs. James Newman entertained Monday afternoon at an informal reception given in honor of Miss Mary Adell Case of Berkeley. Among the notable guests present was Mrs. Constance Crawley.

CARD PARTY.

Mrs. E. N. Nason was hostess recently at an informal card party given in honor of Miss Mildred Rolph, the popular bride-elect. Mrs. Nason was assisted in entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. Julia M. Hart. Twenty-four friends were bidden to the affair.

HOME CLUB.

This evening at the Home Club Mayor Mott will give an address before the members and their guests and will explain the Robinson plans for beautifying the city. The program will be concluded with music and dancing. The receiving party for this evening

VATICAN OUT OF POLITICS

Papal Muncio Explains Attitude to Minister of Justice.

MADRID, Oct. 4.—The Papal Muncio, Monsignor Rina Idini, called on Minister of Justice Romanones today to explain that the Vatican authorities were not participating in the campaign of protestation undertaken by the Spanish prelates against the acts of the government. The Vatican, the Muncio said, was not bearing any pressure in the domain of politics.

In official circles the opinion is unanimous that criminal action must be begun against the Bishop of Tuy, whose second pastoral letter attacking the government's action is alleged to incite religious war.

43,000 SPIES GUARD
SULTAN OF TURKEY

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 4.—In the Turkish budget for the coming year, seven million dollars are set aside to provide for the personal security of the Sultan, Abdul Hamid. It is well known to people who have traveled in Turkey that the Sultan has at his personal service a regular army of spies who are said to number 43,000. Three thousand of these are employed near the Sultan's palace, while several thousand more are scattered through the capital, some of them making a special object of their espionage the foreign embassies.

All over the Turkish empire are the Sultan's spies scattered so that even high officials do not escape their vigilance. Besides the bodyguard of the Turkish sovereign, which numbers 35,000 men, is like a living wall which surrounds the Sultan in moments of danger. These soldiers are paid between 300 and 400 a month.

Much surprise was caused here at the second visit paid to the Sultan by Dr. Bergmann, the Berlin specialist. Abdul Hamid is known to entertain a positive horror of physicians, and since the death of his personal medical attendant, the Greek doctor Mavrogentis, he has positively refused to see another physician. As a matter of fact, the Sultan has acquired a smattering of medical knowledge and religiously preserves the old prescriptions of the dead physician, which he occasionally uses when ill.

The Sultan takes a very regular life. He rises at 5 or 6 every morning, and after a walk in the spacious gardens of his palace he is ready to breakfast, which he generally eats all alone. Before his special secretary tests all food before the Sultan partakes of it and he is the only one allowed to be present at the morning meal of the Turkish sovereign. After breakfast the Sultan spends an hour or two in his library, of which he has a collection of four well-stocked with books and manuscripts in all sorts of languages, among which are thousands of works of great value which have never seen the light of publicity.

After a siesta in his private apartment, during which he is guarded by chosen Circassians, he is ready to receive his ministers and attend to the work of state which he never interrupts before sundown, excepting on Fridays for the ceremony of the Selamlek.

It is never known in which room of the palace the Sultan intends to take his night's rest.

On Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays private theatricals are given at the palace, which the Sultan attends with all his harem and a few invited guests.

MANY PLEAD FOR
PATRICK'S PARDON

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Frank G. Logan of Chicago, retired member of the firm of Logan & Bryan of the Board of Trade, has gone to Albany, N. Y. to intercede with Governor Higgins on behalf of Albert Patrick, condemned to the electric chair for the murder of William Marsh Rice, the New York millionaire. Mr. Logan's interest lies in his intimate friendship for John T. Milliken of St. Louis whose wife is a sister of the condemned man. Mr. Milliken and Mr. Logan have secured a petition to the Governor signed by 3500 physicians of New York, asking him to appoint a commission of experts to pass upon the disputed medical point that the congestion of the lungs found in Rice's body at the post-mortem might have been caused by "choking fluid and not by chloroform."

FOLLOWS GIRL AND

LOCAL LODGES ARE KEPT BUSY

Sequoia Masons and Families Visit Widows' and Orphans' Home at Decoto.

Sequoia Lodge No. 294, F. & A. M., made its annual visit to the Widows' and Orphans' Home at Decoto, Wednesday, September 26, and enjoyed a delightful day under the most pleasant auspices. The members of the order were accompanied by their wives and families and a special train conveyed the entire party to Decoto, where carriages had been provided for transportation to the home. During the afternoon, in the beautiful Siminoff temple, the members of the lodge conferred a degree of Masonry for the pleasure of the aged brothers who are residents of the home, and who by reason of their age and infirmities are unable to participate in the work of the order, very often.

At 3 o'clock the ladies of the party planted a sequoia tree, upon the terrace, directly in front of the main entrance to the home, with appropriate ceremonies. A banquet was enjoyed by all at 6 o'clock, after which both inmates and visitors enjoyed a musical and literary program in the recreation hall of the temple. During the dinner hour the mandarin club, composed of ten little girls of the home entertained the guests with delightful music.

The special brought the party to Oakland, reaching there about midnight. Following the banquet program, including the present officers of the lodge:

Officers: Charles Husband, worshipful master; James Cairns, senior warden; John Ryle MacGregor, junior warden; John Francis Lillie, treasurer; John William Gault, secretary; Frederick Watson, Hart, chaplain; Ferdinand John Buttinn, marshal; Gilman William Bacon, junior deacon; James Rothschild Sloan, junior deacon; Frank Flint Porter, steward; Dan Leslie Hopkins, steward; L. N. Z. Marchand, Tyler.

Program for afternoon (3 p. m., Siminoff Temple), conferring degree of Fellowcraft, Sequoia lodge 3 p. m. on the terrace, planting of sequoia tree on behalf of Sequoia lodge, Mrs. John Gault, acceptance on behalf of Masonic Home, Mrs. H. M. Rucker, original poem, Mrs. John Francis Lillie, "America," audience, 6 p. m., dinner in dining hall.

Program for evening: Address, "Founding of the Home," Brother William Walker, 7:30 p. m., Siminoff Temple; Frolics, (Rachmaninoff), Edward Griffith Stetson, quiet, "Song of the Vikings," Mrs. Charles Poulter, Mrs. Edwin Mason, Pant, Brother John W. ABSENT INVIDIA REBEKAHS.

Absent Invidia Rebekah lodge No. 11 met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Macabee Temple. Many visitors were present. After an interesting session there was a contest between the brothers and sisters as to "What to do in an emergency of a washout on the line." The prize being awarded to brother Arena, sister Wixon and sister Peterson.

BROOKLYN REBEKAHS.

Brooklyn Rebekah lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., held its regular weekly session in Odd Fellows' hall, East Oakland, corner of Eleventh avenue and Twelfth street, last Monday evening. Next Monday evening, October 8, Brooklyn will give a whist party for the benefit of the Orphans' Home at Alhambra. Prizes are on exhibition in Heeseman's windows and judging from the sale of tickets, a fine time is anticipated. All are expected to be present. The lodge expects to have a ball and Captain Sweet is putting forth his best efforts to perfect a floor work for the same. On October 22, there will be an entertainment and dance and sister Galtback and able committee expects a good

Hidden Dangers

NATURE GIVES TIMELY WARNINGS THAT NO OAKLAND CITIZEN CAN AFFORD TO IGNORE.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They warn you when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys secrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thick, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Oakland proof: James Deak, of 625 Fifth street, Oakland, Cal., says: "I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they did me more good than anything else I ever used. I was troubled with backache for about three years, spells of backache coming and going. Sometimes the attacks would last for three days. The kidney secretions troubled me somewhat and I had to get up several times every night. Since I used Doan's Kidney Pills I have not had any backache and the trouble with the kidney secretions has been corrected. You can use my name and I will do any good to other kidney sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMillan Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Time on that occasion. Visiting Rebekahs are welcome any Monday evening at Brooklyn.

MAPLE LEAF LODGE.

Maple Leaf lodge No. 350 of the Fraternal Brotherhood met on Friday last in Franklin hall, 410 Thirteenth street, President R. E. Nickel in the chair.

After a very pleasant business session dancing and whist were enjoyed until a very late hour. Several visiting members were present from other lodges among them being brothers Dixon and Stotzsmith, of Alameda, who made pleasing remarks.

Brother A. L. Davis of the social committee stated that a ball was being planned—the date to be announced later—a fine orchestra has been engaged and from all accounts it will be a most delightful affair.

The supreme president of the Fraternal Brotherhood, brother James A. Forsyth of Los Angeles will be in Oakland Thursday, October 11 and will deliver an address. Sister Cora A. Merrill, D. D. S. P. leaves for Reno, Nev., this week. She will be greatly missed in dancing and whist will be in order tomorrow night, so let every member attend. Lodge opens promptly at 8 o'clock.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

On Thursday evening, September 27, Oakland lodge No. 103, K. of P. held its usual interesting weekly meeting. Being the last of the month it is designated as its "off night" which is a sign that the ceremony of conferring ranks is dispensed with. Consequently it can be called a social and instructive session. Topics appertaining to the welfare of the order universal are introduced and fully discussed.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

The last regular weekly meeting of Albion lodge, Sons of St. George, held Monday evening, October 1, was exceedingly well attended. Routine business was transacted and Brothers W. R. Rowland, H. T. Dickson, J. C. Woodward, K. H. Hines and E. Phillips received the obligations and became members. These brothers form the nucleus of a large class which will be initiated in the new quarters, K. of G. hall, Twelfth and Alce streets, on Wednesday, November 11. A good working committee has been appointed to secure new members. Albion lodge, well and favorably known for the excellent character of its entertainments, is now planning to outdo itself in arranging for a banquet to be given at the new hall, on November 11. An exceedingly prosperous and healthy condition, enjoying few distractions, has been the cause of the lodge's success in the Pacific coast jurisdiction. The officers are hard workers and their enthusiasm has been a help to the rank and file.

WOODMEN OF WORLD.

Forest Camp No. 102, W. O. W., has been enjoying a steady and healthy growth for quite a while and has now become one of the leading Woodmen camps in Alameda county. The officers of the Forest camp usually give the initiation work in a very successful and attractive manner but Monday evening it was given in an exceptionally excellent manner and the camp commander, Dr. H. C. Cline and his staff of officers are to be congratulated on their good work. At the close of the initiation a very tempting banquet was served. The usual after-dinner speeches were given also. The Rev. J. C. Boland, one of the newly initiated candidates, gave an address that was full of wit, humor and pathos. He congratulated Forest camp upon having such a robust, splendid-looking lot of young men. He is a firm believer in the insurance and believes that an excellent way for a young man to provide for his loved ones. Spirit talks were also given by George E. Stetson, camp commander, and a number of other members. Several applications were presented and initiation will be the order of the day for a while. The officers and members go next Tuesday evening to assist Peatita camp, in Berkeley, to initiate about forty candidates.

FREE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.

The Pacific Coast Free Baptist Association will hold its next semi-annual meeting with the Oakland Free Baptist church, Twenty-first street and Union public avenue, on Saturday, October 6, with the following program: 10:15—Half-hour prayer meeting. 11:15—Business session and reports from the churches. 12:30—Lunch in the vestry for delegates. 1:30—Free Baptist Union meeting. 2:00—Preaching service, sermon by Rev. William N. Meserve of San Francisco. 3:30—Covenant meeting, led by Rev. Robert Reid of Oakland. 4:00—Adjournment. The general public will be welcome at these meetings.

RED MEN.

Uncas Tribe No. 12, I. O. R. M., held their regular weekly session on Tuesday evening last, which was a record-breaker for attendance. The degree team which was organized two weeks ago now perform like veterans. Brothers Henry Clark, James Poulter and Wesley Carpenter, members of this tribe, who have been out of town for some time, made their appearance in the Wigwam and were greatly applauded by all the members.

Brother J. S. Smith, who has been ill for the past months is convalescing very rapidly and he himself wishes to be numbered among regular attendants, as well as the tribe.

Tribe will meet every Friday night.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Oakland lodge No. 123, The Fraternal Brotherhood, held its regular meeting last Thursday evening at Hovey Hall, 114 Seventh street, and was well attended. Several applications for membership were received and acted upon.

President King has returned from his vacation and will expect a very large attendance at every meeting. Supreme President James A. Forsyth will visit the lodge on the evening of October 11, and a fine program has been prepared. Everything is being done to make this a very pleasant affair. After lodge adjourned the members enjoyed whist and dancing until a late hour.

This evening will be open meeting and the social committee has promised a good time for the members and their friends. Every member should bring a prospective member and help to "boost" Oakland 123.

TRIBE OF BEN HUR.

A goodly number of Ben Hurs were on hand last Monday evening at Forsters' Hall, to witness Oakland Court No. 6, T. B. H. but the degree work Three candidates were initiated and several applications received which show that the members are busters. The court captured the state prize banner for making the largest increase in membership for the last six months, and are working hard to retain it. A new team has been organized and is drilling after the regular meetings are over, under the captaincy of Brother Clark.

The members are all jubilant over the fact that a new set of robes has been ordered, which will put the Ben Hurs on the coast. Great things are promised under their arrival.

ILLINOIS SOCIETY.

On Monday evening, October 1, the regular monthly meeting of the Illinois Society was held at the home of the president, Mrs. A. H. Smith, 607 Thirty-third street. There was an unusually large attendance of members and friends, and many new members were received into the society.

The meeting was a very enthusiastic one, and methods and plans were discussed for more generally acquainting the public with the society, and for advancing the interests of the organization. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Craigie Sharp and J. E. Pirle, was appointed to report at the next meeting on the matter of a ball for place of meeting and a banquet to be held at the annual meeting in December.

The following very interesting program was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Marguerite Burton; juvenile selection, Miss Lillian Swale; recitation, Mrs. M. Burton; talk, William F. Fie; recitation, Miss Lillian Swale; talk, Rev. Sweeney; piano solo, Miss Marguerite Burton.

GRAND ARMY.

Appomattox Post No. 50, G. A. R., will pay a fraternal visit to Joe Hooker Post No. 11, at Alameda, on Friday evening, October 12. Commanding officer, J. M. Burton, will assemble at the corner of Washington and Teh streets, at 7:45 o'clock sharp, taking the Alameda car.

PRESIDENT BAREHEADED SPEAKS IN POURING RAIN

Thousands Listen to Roosevelt's Words at Dedication of Capitol at Pennsylvania.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 4.—In the presence of the largest crowd that has ever gathered in Harrisburg, the magnificent new capitol of Pennsylvania was dedicated today with brief ceremonies in which President Roosevelt took an active part.

Crowds began to gather about the immense grandstand at the West State street entrance to the capitol grounds at daybreak and when the exercises began the place was one mass of humanity. Before the exercises were started rain began falling and continued throughout the ceremonies.

Thousands stood in the drenching downpour facing the President's stand which was filled notwithstanding rain. Most of the ticket-holders were men, few women turning out on account of the weather. President Roosevelt arrived at the Pennsylvania railroad station at 11:30 a. m., and was met by the capitol dedication committee and escorted to the capitol by the Governor's troops.

Crowds lined the route from the station to the capitol and the President was given a cordial greeting.

At the capitol the President was met by Governor Pennypacker and after the formal greetings the governor and Mayor Gross of Harrisburg presented the President with gold medals as gifts of the state and city respectively.

GIVEN BIG RECEPTION.

President Roosevelt was given an enthusiastic reception when he appeared on the grandstand at 11:45 o'clock. All branches of the State government were represented in the crowd on the platform and considerable space was given to specially invited guests.

Following the reading of a portion of the scriptures from a historic bible by John H. Dillingham, a member of the Society of Friends, Philadelphia, former Governor William A. Stone, president of the capitol building commission, in a brief address, turned the building over to the Governor, at the same time handing him a gold key.

Governor Pennypacker accepted the building on behalf of the people, in a brief speech.

When he concluded, the Governor introduced President Roosevelt, who delivered the principal address of the day.

THREATENING CROWD.

The President wore a raincoat and spoke bareheaded in the rain.

The crowd surged dangerously about on each of the street corners, several thousand persons being involved in the struggling mass.

Matters assumed such a stage that

Colonel Joseph B. Hutchinson, commander of the Eighth regiment, N. G. P., and chief of Harrisburg's police, rode into the crowd, and with the aid of a squad of guardsmen, quieted the people and complete order was restored.

After the cheering that greeted the president at the conclusion of his address had died away, Bishop Darlington of Harrisburg invoked the Divine Benediction, bringing the exercises to a close.

PARADE IS HELD.

The moment the ceremonies were over, a procession which included one brigade of the Pennsylvania National Guard, cadets from the Carlisle Indian school, and soldiers' orphans' school, passed in review before the President.

After the parade the president and his party were offered an opportunity to inspect the capitol. This was followed by a luncheon at the executive mansion in honor of the president, at which forty guests were present.

The new capitol which was dedicated today is one of the most beautiful and imposing buildings in the United States, not only in its architecture but also in its interior decorations and furnishings. Thus far the buildings and its furnishings represent an expenditure of about $13,000,000.

Except for the hanging of the mural paintings by Edwin A. Abbey and Violet Oakley and the setting of the statues of George Gray Barnard, the sculptor, the capitol is practically complete. The building is Roman, Corinthian in its general design and is faced with Baroque. It covers a little more than two acres of ground and stands on the site of the capitol destroyed by fire in February, 1897.

TO COST MILLIONS.

The building was constructed under the supervision of a commission, of which Governor Governor William A. Stone was president, and was furnished under the direction of the board of public grounds and buildings.

Including some preliminary work, it cost $1,000,000 to erect the building and $90,000 to furnish it.

The $9,000,000 spent in furnishing the building has been made a campaign issue by the State fusion candidates who are opposed to the Republican candidates. The board of public grounds and buildings, which expended the money for furnishings, is composed of Governor Pennypacker and Auditor General Snyder (Republicans) and State Treasurer Berry (Democrat).

Although he was a member of the board by virtue of his office, Mr. Berry was the first to publicly criticize the expenditures and the two other members issued a statement in reply in which they justified the cost of furnishing the capitol. The State treasurer alleged there were gross overcharges in the purchase of the furniture and other furnishings.

EVERY CAT A BURGLAR

Populace Excited by Recent Crimes—Hodgkins to Recover.

The residents of this city have been aroused to a nervous pitch by the reign of crime in this city during the past few weeks and, according to the police, "every stump is a hold-up man and every cat in the house is a burglar." Numerous reports are received every night by the police, claiming that a hold-up man or a burglar is at work in a certain section of the city. Every such report investigated has been found to be without foundation.

Mayor Mott has reassured his determination to wipe out every kind of crime in this city and assures the residents that everything will be done for their protection that is possible.

HOLD-UP MISSING.

The daring hold-up man who operated for so many days in the residence districts has either gone to other climes, thinking Oakland was getting too "warm" for him, or is lying in wait for a time when the officers are off their guard.

Every officer has been especially ordered to keep a lookout for the lone footpad who it is believed is responsible for all the hold-ups and burglaries that have taken place in the past fortnight and who, it is believed, attempted to end the life of Policeman Wilfred I. Hodgkins last Monday night on Webster, near Twenty-first street.

Mrs. Florence Merrill, who resides at 628 Twenty-seventh street, has reported seeing a man in the front yard of her home shortly after the attempt was made to hold up O. G. Newhall on Albion street, near Telegraph avenue, about a week ago.

MEASURE TRACKS.

Mrs. Merrill asserts that she was looking out the window of her home when she saw a man in her front yard below. She opened her window and called to him, when the fellow pointed a pistol at her and told her to keep quiet. This she did and after his departure, told the police of her experience. A detective was sent out and he discovered the tracks of the burglar. They were measured and will be kept for identification.

Mrs. Merrill secured a good look at the supposed robber, a passing automobile flashing a light on him and revealing his features.

The thug is described as being about 5 feet 8 inches in height, smooth shaven, broad-shouldered and wearing a light suit of clothes. He also had a mark over the lower part of his face.

HODGKINS BETTER.

The condition of Policeman Wilfred I. Hodgkins, who was seriously wounded by a bullet from the pistol of the much-wanted thug last Monday night, is much improved and he will recover.

A CHAMPION AT GETTING INJURED

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Natives of the Bronx have always been proud of the many records held by inhabitants of their borough. Another has been added to the already long list in Willie Tray, 13 years old. Flanagan is a Bronxite, and this sturdy athlete's feats with the hammer are well known. "Mugsy" Garvin of Tremont holds all records as a pile eater, but both these wonders are now forgotten by the younger generation for Willie Tray has been brought home in an ambulance again and all the available homage comes Willie's way.

Willie, since he was 4 years old, has made a specialty of getting hurt. First he fell from a third-story window and fractured his arm so badly that he has been partially crippled ever since. As soon as he was able to get out of the house Willie started getting run over and falling down cellarways.

Willie's parents thought he had reached his limit when he nearly blew himself up July 1 with a pistol. He was carried home that day with a 32-caliber bullet in his arm and his face filled with powder. The pistol, a cheap affair, had exploded.

Just to show that he was still in the ring, last week Willie fell down the 18th Street steps that connect the dwellers of Claremont Heights with the rest of the world. This fall did not injure him very much, and two days later he was out again.

Willie's great accident came when he went over to the Macombs Dam Athletic park, at 169th street and Jerome avenue. He will be at home now for an indefinite period with a broken shoulder blade.

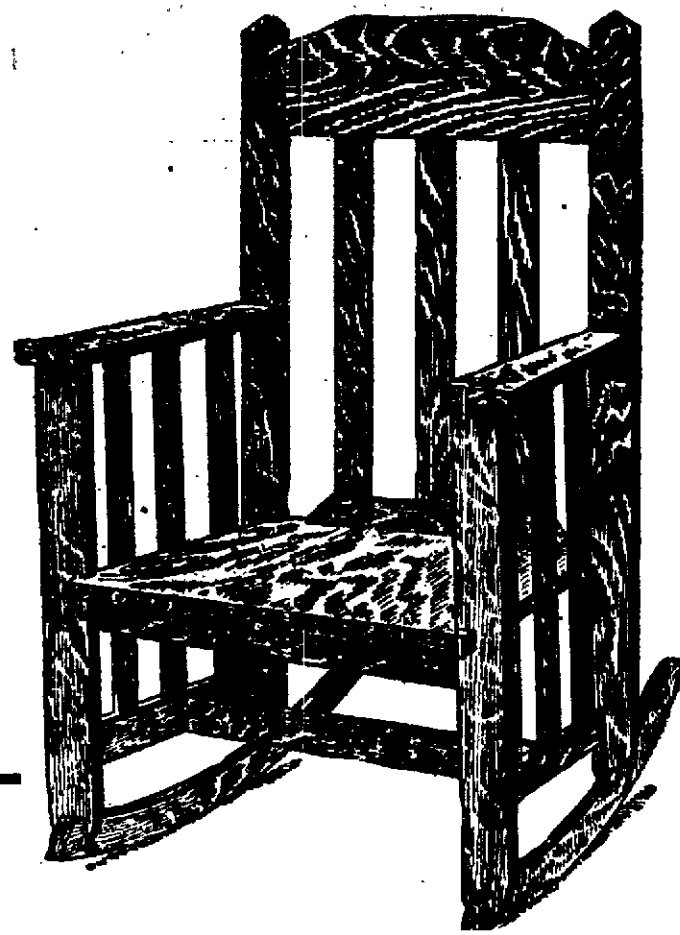

When the boy arrived at the park he became envious of two young athletes who were practicing on the flying rings. Just to show the boys with him that his crippled arm did not bother him, Willie caught a ring and swung it down. He managed to get through the "giant circle" and to "skin-the-cat," but a double whirl was a little too much for his good arm and Willie landed on a heap of stones.

Willie was carried home in a Lincoln Hospital ambulance. He told his mother, when he arrived, that he didn't mind, for there wasn't another boy in the Bronx who wasn't jealous.

CHILD'S SIGHT IS RESTORED

Successful Operation Performed on Huber Girl Stricken Blind Three Years Ago.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The light that faded three years ago and left Margaret Huber, then 7 years of age, stone blind has been brought back by a series of operations which ophthalmologists declare remarkable. The knife was used in an extreme case of iridocyclitis, and the chances seemed to be 100 to 1 that irritation from which the blindness arose would be increased. The accepted authorities in eye diseases state that in such extreme cases operations are rarely successful.

Dr. John A. Price, of the ophthalmic department of the German polyclinic performed the operations.

"It seemed just like night all the time," said the little patient when she could see again, "but I never got discouraged and I always hoped to see again. I shall love the doctor all my life. Now I can go to school. I have never been there."

PLANS TO SAVE THE SHERIDAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Captain Humphrey, the quartermaster in charge of the transport Sheridan, which was beached near Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, recently to avoid sinking, has called the quartermaster-general that he has no thought of abandoning the ship, but intends to list her to starboard, so as to raise the leaks above water, keep her in that position by chaining her to a barge laden with pig iron and tow her to Honolulu for repairs.

COLORADO HAS FIRST SNOWFALL

PUEBLO, Colo., Oct. 4.—The first snowstorm of the season began here, shortly after 8 o'clock this morning, with indications that it will continue throughout the day. The temperature has fallen nearly 40 degrees since last evening.

JEWELERS NOW ARE TO STRIKE

Chicago Manufacturers Will Not Submit to Union's Rule Without Struggle.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The jewelry workers are planning a general strike in Chicago, to begin next Monday.

Mass meetings of jewelry employees were held last night in various parts of the city, at which it was decided to inaugurate the eight-hour day without further delay. Committees were appointed to visit the fifty-seven jewelry manufacturing concerns and demand the new schedule of hours, with the alternative of a strike.

That the manufacturers do not propose to submit to the union rule without a struggle was indicated by a meeting of leading jewelry men in the evening, when an association was perfected and plans were formed for resisting the union.

The principal jewelry industry in Chicago is said to be the manufacture of wedding rings, nearly three-fourths of the jewelry of this class used here being made in the local shops. An enforced shut-down at a time when large orders for the Christmas season are on hand, it is said, will cause a serious shortage of rings.

FATALLY HURT IN FOOTBALL

Editor's Son is Victim to First Tragedy of the Game in Kentucky.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Mount Sterling, Ky., says: What probably will prove the first football tragedy of the year occurred in this State here yesterday, when Roger Hedden, in attempting to make a tackle, sustained a concussion of the brain and internal injuries. Attending physicians say he cannot recover. Roger Hedden is the son of J. W. Hedden, editor of the Mount Sterling Advocate.

OFFICERS RAID ON GAMBLERS

Compelled to Grapple and Fight With Lookouts Before Orientals are Captured.

ALAMEDA, Oct. 4.—Eight orientals, four Chinese and four Japanese, were last night captured in a raid made on a Chinese gambling house on Lincoln avenue and Park street, by Officers Mosbus and Wahmuth.

The officers, to gain admission to the gambling house, were compelled to grapple and fight with two lookouts placed at the door. The signal was given by the lookouts before the officers could gain entrance to the rooms where the game was going on, and many of the players made their escape.

Wahmuth and Mosbus broke through the door into the room where the men had been playing and captured the eight, who were fighting among themselves, attempting to make their escape through a small alley way leading from the rear of the house. The prisoners were taken to the police station where a charge of visiting a gambling house was placed against them. They are now out on $10 bail each and are to appear in court tomorrow.

Sugar the Cook!

I heard that phrase the other day in a grocery and asked the proprietor what it meant. He told me it was a form of petty graft that once had quite a vogue in this city. It consisted of paying commissions to cooks and stewards for sending their employers to certain stores and markets. There isn't so much of it done now and the abuse is confined mainly to credit stores. Well, we live and die ourselves out. Ah, me! I wonder if Lehnhardt's sugar is his cooks. They certainly put up the "sweets" all right. I'm going around there now.

AN OFFICIAL VISIT.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 4.—King Haakon, Queen Maude and Crown Prince Olaf of Norway arrived here today. This is their first official visit abroad since the King's coronation and he was accorded a magnificent reception by the inhabitants. A crowd of 100,000 persons, including many Norwegian-Americans, lined the streets from the railroad station to the palace.

BLUMENTHALS TO VISIT IN PORTLAND

Abe Blumenthal, the former popular proprietor of the "Silver Front" clothing store and trunk factory, leaves this evening, accompanied by Mrs. Blumenthal, for a two weeks vacation in Portland, where both are well known and where Mrs. Blumenthal has relatives. Upon the return of Mr. Blumenthal from Portland, he intends to again branch out in commercial pursuits and will soon be in active business in Oakland, where he enjoys the highest reputation among business associates and the public in general. Mr. Blumenthal never does anything by "halves" and when he starts anew, he will be heard from once more as conducting a reliable store, where bargain sales will prevail, as was the custom when Mr. Blumenthal was at the head of "The Silver Front," which he recently sold to advantage to a San Francisco firm.

FIGHT AND LIVE TO RUN AWAY

Floodless Battle Over Fair Maiden Interrupted by Police

ALAMEDA, Oct. 4.—An affair of the heart ended in a fight on Tuesday night when Henry H. Smith and Alvin King met at the corner of San Antonio and First streets. Smith, a 27-year-old man, and King, a 25-year-old man, were both members of the Alameda Athletic Club. The fight was a result of a dispute over a girl named Mary Case. The fight was a floodless battle, and the two men fought for some time before the police intervened and separated them. Smith was taken to the hospital, but he is now recovering.

We do not mean that $1.84 in currency is actually enclosed in each package of Pillsbury's Best Breakfast Food—Vitos. But we do mean it saves you that much over the ready-to-eat kinds. Besides you get "Pillsbury" quality, and that's always the best. A package containing two full pounds costs 20 cents. When prepared it makes 12 pounds. The ready-to-serve kinds, containing about 7/8 of a pound to the package, cost 15 cents. A full pound would cost about 17 cents. 12 pounds would cost $2.04. So the difference between 20 cents and $2.04 indicates the saving when Vitos is used—$1.84. Use Vitos regularly. Put $1.84 in the bank every time you buy a package. FORCE==WHAT HE MIGHT HAVE SAID

Opinion of Students, Evolution of Words and Writing of Detective Stories.

"Forceful James" once made a speech
Unto a congregation
Of hopeful lads with dotting dads,
(The rising generation),
Concerning fads and football pads,
And crises of the nation.

"This Rugby's anoladies' game,
For damsels young or old,
'Tis what we play" (thus did he say)
Beneath the Blue and Gold.
It's here to stay—such is the way
The New succeeds the Old.

"The way to win the reckless game
Is not by punts and passes—
Behind the team must rooters scream—
Leave basket ball for lasses;
Though it doth seem an idle dream
To talk in manner gascous.

"The Rugby game is here to stay,
Along with Roosevelt spelling;
There is no loss in catch and toss,
No waste of breath in yelling.
My hobby-hoss is double-cross
For editors. Farewelling."

"Speak what you think now in hard words, and tomorrow speak what tomorrow thinks in hard words, though it contradict everything you said today."—Emerson.

James A. Force, the football hero of Berkeley town, has succinctly explained his football speech at the Oakland High School to the satisfaction of himself.

"By some queer blunder," he explains, he has been made to call Rugby football an "old ladies' game."
"If it were so, it were a grievous fault,
"And grievously hath Caesar answered it."

THE EXPLANATION.

James Force also guesses how he came to be quoted so. To say, 'Rugby is no ladies' game,' rapidly, might sound like, 'Rugby is 'n old ladies' game.' Now, evolution is a subject taught in the University of California, but does that make it possible that the Rugby, which is 'no ladies' game,' may degenerate into 'an old ladies' game,' while the palpable corruption of 'n old ladies' game' is ultimately evolved into 'no ladies' game,' or vice versa?"

The explanation given fits the case.

DETECTIVE STORIES.

Do you know how detective stories are written? First of all the plot. The author begins at the end, with the solution, and works backward, laying thread after thread, piece after piece, until the plot is formed. Of course, the detective never begins at the wrong end: Sherlock Holmes would have been Raffled off long ago if he were that clumsy. But Sherlock can easily gather up the startling clues which the astute Sir Conan Doyle has carefully strewn along, each in its proper place. Wonder if James A. Force wouldn't make a good detective story writer?

In a detective story, if it be a good one, the explanation, prepared in advance, fits the case. A football speech should follow suit.

James Force's speech was a

RELiance CLUB PREPARES TO PRESENT THE MOST EXPENSIVE BOUTS IN ITS HISTORY

The Reliance club managers insist that they will not be out done by the San Francisco clubs that are giving amateur boxing shows, with double main events and advertising big double numbers. To prove that they will not take a back seat from the other clubs they have signed up the most expensive card that has yet been given on this side of the bay.

Every bout looks to be a dandy and it is the consensus of opinion of those who have seen the entries that the coming show should prove a real old timer and the attendance should be large. The reserving of the entire house and charging one price of admission seems to have met with the approval of the public and the managers of the show promise that the seating will be better than ever this time.

Otto Ritter, the club's gymnastic instructor, will have charge of the ushering and as he already has a corps

OAKS LOSE IN A BUSHER GAME

The Silwashes started out to play bush ball yesterday afternoon at Idora park, and while this was going on the park decided to take advantage of their opponents' shortcomings and hammer in a few runs. They did so with much ease and great grace, but the bush instinct which the northern hosts developed at the outset was contagious and ere the trouble was over the Commuters contracted the malady and lost the game, 9 to 8.

good one. The O. H. S. boys never heard a better football speech. They were never so enthusiastic for American football as after the truly model American athlete, James A. Force, spoke.

Half the boys at Oakland High believe that James A. Force said, "Rugby is an old ladies' game."

Most of those who did were still skeptical, even after perusing "James A. Force: His Explanation." Of course, this might apply only to half the boys in the Oakland High School.

Anyway, only half of them ever go to football rallies or clap and cheer when American football is encouraged.

Honest, now, do you think that James A. Force; His Explanation, was spontaneous or prepared beforehand, with purpose aforethought?

It is an actual fact that FORCE'S SPEECH WAS DELIVERED IN ROOM 23 AT THE HIGH SCHOOL. The correspondent who suggests that this would seem to indicate that that would be about all for Mr. Force is advised that his contribution is reje-of ushers working out for the occasion he should be able to give the public complete satisfaction.

"Iron Man" Charlie Dunn, who without any doubt is the toughest man of his weight among the four round specialists, is working for his coming contest at Larkspur with Jimmy Carroll. He claims to be in good condition already.

Those on this side of the bay who were fortunate enough to see Joe Mitchell, his opponent in action at the club's last boxing night agree that Charlie will have to fight to beat the colored boy with the terrible punch. The winner will no doubt be matched with Young Choyinski next month. They are each very anxious to win.

Loren Brown and Jack Evans, who meet in the second main event are the most evenly matched pair of boxers that have yet appeared in Oakland and their return match has met with the approval of the boxing fans, who are anxious to see the boys try conclusions again in the arena.

SENIORS WIN INTER-CLASS TROPHY

BERKELEY, Oct. 4.—The seniors won from the freshmen yesterday by a score of 3 to 0, capturing the inter-class Rugby championship and winning the Wolf challenge cup. The seniors did not by any means have a walkover for the freshmen proved them feisty and at times came within a few feet of crossing the senior goal line.

On Saturday afternoon at 3:30 the junior Rugby team will play the sophomores on the old football field to determine which class shall have the honor of being second in the interclass games.

The percentages of the various classes are as follows:

Juniors, 500; sophomores, 300; freshmen, 333.

LICK THREATENS TO IGNORE MEET

Talks of Withdrawing Team From Field Day Saturday if Munn Competes.

By TOM VEITCH.

As the date of the Bay Counties League field day draws near a feeling more closely approaching confidence than previously this semester pervades the Oakland High track team. The reason for this is easily found in the phenomenal performance of Albert Munn, the phenomenal athlete, will compete. This was decided at the recent meeting of the B. C. L. Field Day Committee, all the schools having teams entered in the meet, with the exception of Lick, wishing Munn as a captain. An agreement was signed to this effect by the representatives of Lowell, Berkeley, Morrison, Wilmar, and Oakland High. Oakland Poly has announced its intention to sign.

Although not entirely sportsmanlike, Lick's move was good policy, as this school is Oakland's nearest competitor. Its protest notwithstanding, Lick threatens to withdraw its team from the meet. In this case the protest would not be considered.

However, as all the other members of the league wish Munn to compete, the objection will have no force anyway, but if other schools should change their vote there might be trouble in store for Oakland High.

In discussing the subject, Captain Vail said:

DIDN'T INTEND TO ENTER.
"I had no intention of entering Munn in the field day Saturday, but when the members of our field day committee learned that he had only returned to Oakland his last semester's work, they requested me, with one exception to add his name on the Oakland entry list. This I did, and the list was accepted by the field day committee. Munn will compete Saturday."

The addition of Munn to the team is very opportune. Leber, the fast sprinter and relay man of the team, who was captured on the eight points, is ill with typhoid fever and will be unable to compete in either of the two field days this term. If Leber were able to compete Saturday, with Munn present, there would be no doubt as to the outcome.

The fans have computed that Oakland will need 44 points to win the day, and Munn-day.

There will be a large relay held Friday at the school as a send-off for the team. Several old track "wolves" speak among them Northridge, Bob McElroy.

The yell leader promises some singing in the routing section Saturday. Oakland's routing section this year will be to the standard set in former years.

although this number of points can be counted for O. H. S., the margin is very small and any accident would change the result.

Foremost of the point-winners on local teams will undoubtedly be Munn, is entered in the high and broad jump and in the shot-put. Besides winning three first places he should knock out at least one of the existing records in the events.

Next in line will, in all probability, be George Grubb in the hurdles. He is an old hand at the sticks and has proved better this year than ever before. His time is considerably faster than made in the San Francisco league last Saturday.

Captain Vail will win the pole vault with Smith, of Oakland, second. The pole can do 10 ft. 6 in., which should give him the place.

In the high jump, besides Munn, will be Conrad, a consistent jumper, who can do 6 ft. 5 in. and should score well. Free and Maddox will both enter the half mile. Free being counted on to win.

Maddox and Lloyd Strow, are entered in the 400. Neither are remarkably fast and when running against such men as Macdonald and Crabtree, they will not appear to advantage. However, Oakland should gain a place in this event.

Macdonald, a member of last year's team, will be entered in the sprint. He should lap off the relay.

THE RELAY TEAM.
Oakland, after expecting up to the 100 to have a fast relay team, will be disappointed. The team which will be expected to obtain second place. This is the sickness of Leber, who was the runner in the short relay, but he is ill. The manager, Huntington, who was to run the third lap. However, with the back, overlying the team, which is a team of Oakland athletes and now there is a strong around the corners.

although this number of points can be counted for O. H. S., the margin is very small and any accident would change the result.

Foremost of the point-winners on local teams will undoubtedly be Munn, is entered in the high and broad jump and in the shot-put. Besides winning three first places he should knock out at least one of the existing records in the events.

Next in line will, in all probability, be George Grubb in the hurdles. He is an old hand at the sticks and has proved better this year than ever before. His time is considerably faster than made in the San Francisco league last Saturday.

Captain Vail will win the pole vault with Smith, of Oakland, second. The pole can do 10 ft. 6 in., which should give him the place.

In the high jump, besides Munn, will be Conrad, a consistent jumper, who can do 6 ft. 5 in. and should score well. Free and Maddox will both enter the half mile. Free being counted on to win.

Maddox and Lloyd Strow, are entered in the 400. Neither are remarkably fast and when running against such men as Macdonald and Crabtree, they will not appear to advantage. However, Oakland should gain a place in this event.

Macdonald, a member of last year's team, will be entered in the sprint. He should lap off the relay.

THE RELAY TEAM.

MOTHER CARESSES
HER LIFELESS CHILDConceals Baby's Condition to Avoid Ejectment From the Train.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—With a lullaby on her lips and a great sorrow in her heart, Mrs. Jessie Nichols, 737 West Forty-seventh street, for five hours clung to her dead twin baby, while its mate was dying in her lap as a swift train hurried them to Chicago.

As the train sped through Michigan Mrs. Nichols caressed and petted the dead baby as frequently as she did its dying sister, and it was not until St. Joe was reached that two young women, seeing the baby cold in death, notified the conductor and the woman was gently led from the train.

Doctors were at once called and said that there was no hope for the other baby.

Mrs. Nichols, who is the wife of a department manager of the packing firm of Swartzchild & Silberberg, was on a visit to her father at Coloma, Mich., where it had been hoped the change of air would benefit the twins. Laverne and Faine, who for some time had been the victims of a peculiar feeding disease.

The change had been without beneficial effect, and both the ones wasted away, and their mother decided to rush to Chicago in the hope of saving their lives.

She had been on the train but a few minutes when the boy died. The mother, fearing that if the fact of his death was known she would be ejected and all hope of saving the girl, she removed, concealed the fact from all the passengers.

As the train sped on mile after mile, the woman, choking her tears, sang to both babies, and, covering the face of the boy, endeavored to make it appear that he was sleeping. So well did she play her part that it was not until five hours after she had heard it that the covering slipped from the face of Laverne and passengers saw that the little fellow was dead.

Weeping bitterly, Mrs. Nichols was led from the train and cared for by physicians. Her own condition was found to be serious, the terrible strain on her nerves having had its effects, with no hope for the little girl's recovery.

The death of the twins was not unexpected for several months they have been suffering from a disease which appeared to dry up their flesh.

A score of physicians had been consulted, but had been unable to discover a remedy. Mr. Nichols will remain at the hospital in St. Joe, waiting the outcome of the illness of his wife and baby.

MAN IS FORCED TO WED WOMAN
ALTHOUGH NOT IN LOVE WITH HER

On the right is shown Miss Mary MacDonald of Brooklyn, bride-elect of William F. Thober, and who, at the hour set for the wedding, appeared as bridesmaid and compelled him to wed the girl he had jilted. On the left is Mrs. William Thober (nee Glover) of Newark, N. J., and who was deserted by her husband immediately after the ceremony.

In the center is the MacDonald dwelling, 247 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, where the Thober-Glover wedding ceremony was performed, and below a photo of William F. Thober of Arenton, N. J., who vanished during the evening of his marriage to Miss Glover.

WOULDN'T KISS BRIDE;
GETS HIS 'EAD BROKEN

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—Stephen Shebowski declined to kiss the bride at a Polish wedding and as a result is now in the Episcopal hospital with a broken head, while Peter Elguski, the bridegroom and ten others, spent a night in cells of the Eleventh district police station. Elguski wedded Salina Gawlik in a Frankfort church one day last week, and that night a half-hundred of his friends were invited to the reception at his home, No. 2747 Sanson street. There is a pretty Polish custom which rules that every guest should give a measure with the bride, plant a kiss upon her lips and drop a coin as payment into a basket upon the table.

Agnes Shebowski did an unbecoming thing by flatly refusing to permit her husband, Stephen, to perform the part of the ceremony to which he was naturally most inclined. Because he was a good husband and obeyed, Paul Jasin, the fiddler, whacked him over the head with his instrument. This was the signal for a melee that brought patrons on riot calls from the Twenty-fourth and Eleventh police districts.

The patrol from the Twenty-fourth district took Shebowski, a martyr to his wife's jealousy, to the hospital. Jasin used a small fiddle, and Shebowski had a badly broken head. Elguski, in his high hat, frock coat and white vest, rode off in the patrol wagon with ten of his guests. They were put in cells, and, though the bride came and wept over the surgeon's desk, imploring that the new husband be released to her or that she be permitted to enter the cell with him, there was no relenting.

AMERICAN BEAUTY WINS HEART OF THIS ENGLISH WOMAN HATER

In all the British Empire and perhaps in all the world there is no man who excites the interest and plagues the vanity of so many beautiful women as General Lord Kitchener.

The reason is that he has all the qualities that usually command the admiration of women, and that he has always appeared absolutely impervious to their charms.

To bring such a man to one's feet is not that a task to stimulate the natural ambitions of a normally constituted woman?

The news comes from London that at last a woman has achieved the world-stirring triumph of captivating the stony Kitchener.

It is not surprising that she is an American, for nearly all the greatest matrimonial prizes in English high society have been carried off by irresistible charmers from this side of the water.

She is no other than the lovely and beautiful Mrs. Chauncey, once of Louisville, Ky., and later of New York, who has dazzled with her charms and her brilliance nearly every part of the world, including London, the Riviera and Simla, the Indian settlement, where the viceroy, the commander-in-chief (Lord Kitchener), and all the principal personages of the Anglo-Indian world repair in summer. This society has been immortalized by Kipling in "Plain Tales from the Hills."

According to the report published in London, Lord Kitchener has fallen deeply in love with beautiful Mrs. Chauncey, and their engagement will shortly be announced. The fierce, haughty soldier feels that he cannot command the British forces in India without her assistance. An astonishing change has taken place. He no longer scowls in the ferocious manner that used to make natives and children flee for their lives at the very sight of him, but he constantly smiles in the happiest manner.

It is common knowledge that he has entirely changed his habits of life recently. Instead of sitting in an old wooden chair at a wooden table, he has furnished his houses exquisitely with rare woods, hangings and porcelain. He has used all his knowledge of the East and his unequalled opportunities to acquire the most beautiful material of this kind. His houses at Calcutta and Simla have both been fitted up in the most delightful manner.

The conquest of Kitchener has astounded British society. The astute British mamas and the loveliest English girls had exhausted every conceivable expedient to capture the great warrior. They had failed, and they had made up their minds that he was an absolutely incurable woman-hater.

He looked on the most beautiful women, doing their utmost to please him, as coldly as he looked at the slaughter of the dervishes at Khartoum or the construction of new wire entanglements for shutting in the Boers. Indeed, slaughter and barbed wire, although they left him cold, excited a keen professional interest in him, whereas the wiles of beauty left him not only cold, but absolutely uninterested.

They tried all kinds of entanglements, but he proved even more elusive than General De Wet, when chased by Kitchener. They tried to corner him in the conservatory and lure him to the stairs by various ruses de guerre, but his cold, calm strategy always enabled him to evade them.

Now, after all British womanhood has given him up as hopeless, he has been captured by an American girl, for Mrs. Chauncey, though a widow, is no more than a girl.

HER AMERICAN WAY.

How did Mrs. Chauncey accomplish this colossal task, this stupendous triumph? How did she do what the most eligible girls in British society, unsurpassed in their beauty, and miserably failed to accomplish? How did she pierce the rhinoceros hide of coldness, cynicism, ambition, obstinacy and self-esteem that guarded the heart of the warrior? In other words, how should one go about it to convert a confirmed woman-hater to matrimony?

Surely the answers to these questions will reveal secrets of the deepest importance to all women who are interested in the war for the winning of human hearts and the conquests of society and the world.

Mrs. Chauncey had an enormous number of resources at her command. Of course, she is beautiful, vivacious, clever and full of vitality and magnetism. She has the independence of manner that only American girls enjoy. She has the breeding that comes from old Southern ancestry. She has the advantage of knowing New York society, which, in such matters as dress, dinners and personal smartness, is the most brilliant in the world. She has also had the benefit of a great international social experience which has been one long series of brilliant triumphs.

But it was undoubtedly Mrs. Chauncey's American way of treating Lord Kitchener as no more than an equal and laughing at him when she felt inclined that broke down his defenses. She did not gaze at him with awe, or grovel at his feet or tremble at his frown or overwhelm him with admiration, as some of the English girls did.

Mrs. Chauncey first became friendly with the famous general on the occasion of the great Dunbar, which Lord Curzon organized to proclaim King Edward's accession to the throne and peoples of India. One hundred elephants dressed in scarlet and gold took part in this affair, and it was a considerable undertaking for any man or woman to attempt to outshine them.

HOW THE ROMANCE BEGAN.

Lord Kitchener had a large and splendid tent, where he lived and entertained during such time as he could spare from his duties as chief military participant in the various ceremonies. Among the American visitors to the Dunbar was Mrs. Adair, a sprightly, white-haired matron, possessed of the wit, vivacity and firmness of figure which Americans preserve better than any other women. Mrs. Adair helped to organize the social festivities in Lord Kitchener's tent.

"You mustn't expect him to be very polite," said Mrs. Adair to Mrs. Chauncey, before the Dunbar. "They say he hates pretty women."

"You make me quite anxious to have a peep at the monster," said Mrs. Chauncey.

Mrs. Adair introduced Mrs. Chauncey to Lord Kitchener, and she was invited to dinners and luncheons in the tent.

She asked him questions about things which he considered above the comprehension of women, and insisted upon getting an answer. He found that she understood perfectly and made many useful suggestions.

When he assumed the terrible scowl that has struck terror into whole populations she told him not to look cross. Although she was always beautiful and dainty-looking, he found that she could ride horseback as well and as fast

SENATOR PLATT BREAKING
UNDER NERVOUS STRAINWife Shows Temper by Breaking Camera and Slapping the Photographer When He Tries to Picture Her.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—It looks as if United States Senator Platt will not be able to stand much longer the strain he has suffered since his marital troubles became public. There is every indication that he is on the verge of collapse. Yesterday afternoon he was carried out of the Hotel Gotham by two sons. His feet dragged along the floor and they had to lift him into his carriage. There was an intimation that he left the hotel because he had expected an interview with his wife at the office of the United States Express Company. If that was so he was disappointed. She stayed at River Lodge, the Platt home at Highland Hills.

When Platt was lifted into his cab by his sons he was driven to his office, where he remained behind closed doors for the rest of the afternoon. It was said he would make no statement and would simply await developments. It is understood he will avoid all efforts of Mrs. Platt to see him.

Soon after Platt arrived at his office the correspondent of a Washington paper called to find out if the Senator's mind had failed and if it was his intention to resign from the Senate. He sent a message, in reply to which the correspondent sent the following: "The Senator has no intention of resigning. The Senator says his mental faculties are unimpaired."

Mrs. Platt left the house at Highland Hills yesterday afternoon for a drive she was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Francis J. Carmody.

They were in a runabout and were driving along the road when Mrs. Platt saw a photographer behind a pole. He had a camera focused and was intent on getting a picture when Mrs. Platt, without waiting for the horse to stop, jumped out of the runabout and rushed for him. Before he could retreat she had knocked over his camera. While the photographer was trying to save it she landed twice with her open hand on his jaw.

"Take that," she said, and I hope it will stop others from annoying me. Mrs. Platt said yesterday afternoon she would probably close up Tiggs Lodge. It became known yesterday that Senator Platt's son Frank and Mrs. Platt gave up their town house a few days ago and are now living at the Gotham. The closed house seemed coincident with the publication of Platt's troubles.

Though Frank Platt has not seen his father's wife since the Senator married her, there is no doubt about his loyalty to his father and that he will do everything in his power to help the aged politician. He has taken rooms on the same floor as his father and will remain near him.

The report that Platt had been disposing of his wealth in order that his wife might have a difficulty in getting money from him, a said to have made Mrs. Platt feel that if she could have a talk with him she would soon stop the alleged Senator, however, will not see him.

There seems to be good ground for the belief that Platt has fixed his affairs so he will have no more to do with the matter. Though not in his possession, there has been talk of taking such action for some time.

as a man. That was a habit she had learned in Kentucky.

In fact, he found that he had met a beautiful woman, who was also a good companion, sensible, dignified, possessed of a keen sense of humor and apparently not in the least anxious "to catch" him. He now began to feel that after all a life which consisted of nothing but fighting, reviewing soldiers and writing military documents was rather barren. He explained some of these ideas to Mrs. Chauncey, but she told him that he was good for nothing but these things; that he was too cross and conceited for her, and, in fact, generally laughed at him. Then she had to go away.

AN ENGLISH WAR GOD.

The Chauncey image was impressed ineffaceably on the General's heart. He wrote long and interesting letters to the beautiful widow and was overjoyed when he found that she liked India well enough to pay a second visit to it. As a result of this visit society hears that another Anglo-American marriage will take place, more interesting than any which has yet been celebrated.

There is good reason why women should feel an interest in Lord Kitchener. He is a rare combination of qualities. He is 6 feet 2 inches high, extremely handsome and as powerfully built as any prize-fighter. At the same time he is a man of great intellect. No living general has had so much fighting as he.

He drove the Mahdi and his hordes from the borders of Egypt into the Sudan, following them up for 2,000 miles and finally catching them and slaughtering them almost to a man. After all British generals had made a mess of the Boer war, Kitchener was the one who finished it. He is now commander-in-chief in India and his next promotion will be to the supreme command in England. He is the only general whom the English regard as certain to succeed in anything he undertakes.

Why should such a man be a hater of women? For one thing, he considered it absolutely fatal to the highest military success to be tied to a woman in any way. As a horrible example, he had the venerable Lord Roberts, who has been made ridiculous by his wife's interference with his staff appointments and other military arrangements.

But now that Lord Kitchener has found the ideal woman of perfect sense and judgment, all his objections must vanish.

He has a great deal to offer a bride. He will certainly be raised higher in the peerage. As a bachelor he has saved most of his large pay and has received special grants from the government. He owns a fine estate in England, Aspell Hall, and the Island of Elephantine, in the Nile, which is laid out with exquisite Oriental garden, and is probably the most delightful winter residence that could be found.

Mrs. Chauncey is the daughter of

SON WEDDED ACTRESS

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Diplomas given to tell who: Ellis will do. I am sure I don't know, as I haven't seen him since last winter. Alfred Corey said this morning when asked about the report that his son, William Ellis Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, was about to marry Madeleine Gliman, the actress.

So far as is known, Mrs. Corey will remain in the east, so as to be nearer her son during the winter, but has not given up her home in Reno. She will spend some time with her mother and friends in Switzerland and Braddock, but whether she will remain there during the winter or not will not be determined until after the boy is placed in school.

GOES ACROSS THE SEA TO MARRY

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—A romance which began in a village school at Mynogran, Holland, culminated Monday night in the office of Justice of the Peace Kays Patterson, N. J., when the couple were wedded.

The bride arrived in this country Tuesday afternoon. She was Miss Maria Christina Wilhoits Cornelia Kornelissen. She is 36 years old. The bridegroom is Frederick Henrik Salomon Brack, 36 years old.

The couple attended the same school in Holland. Brack came to this country to seek his fortune. He succeeded in business and about a month ago sent word to his sweetheart to come here and be his wife. When she landed in Hoboken Tuesday afternoon Brack was there to meet her.

RUNAWAY HORSE
PUTS FAIR IN PANIC

WINSTED, Conn., Oct. 4.—A horse attached to a carriage and owned by M. T. Smith, of Westogue, ran away on the crowded Simsbury fair grounds today, causing a panic among the hundreds of people present.

The animal crossed the road and badly damaged several rigs and Mrs. H. L. Fouts, who was thrown from her carriage, is feared to be mortally injured. People trapped upon each other in their endeavor to escape the horse.

An Awful Cough Cured.
"Two years ago our little girl had a touch of pneumonia, which left her with a severe cough. She had spells of coughing, just like a whooping cough, and some thought she would never get well at all. We got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. She stopped coughing and was soon as well as usual."—Mrs. O. B. Bunker, Brimfield, Ill. This remedy is for sale by J. C. Rogers, Druggist, New York, corner of Seventh and Washington, corner of Twelfth.

Begins up the waste times of the widows. Let's Kitchener and Lever get on.

STAR ANSWERS
CHORUS GIRLDeclares That "Frozen Faces" Are Not Seen Among Leaders in Company.

Editor TRIBUNE: I have been reading the controversy over "frozen faces" chorus girls, as well as stars, at auto parks, and as I am personally interested I desire to make a few suggestions on the subject. In order to be perfectly frank with you, I will say that I am one of the stars at Idora, that is, I take one of the leading characters. I trust I am not included in the class known as "frozen-faces." So as the stars are concerned at Idora, they all try to do their duty. We are not shirkers, on the contrary, we all try to please. It is our life to respond to encores. I have not noticed any of the stars sulk over an encore.

It is true that stars sometimes cut out part, but there is always some good excuse for this action. I was told the other night that a distinguished Englishman went to Idora to hear "Fritz Hartman sing that 'hind-foot rabbit song.' His friend was somewhat surprised when Hartman did not come through with his song. Now the fact is that Hartman was in very poor voice that evening and he had to save himself. So you see he had a good excuse for making the cut in his part.

I will admit that there are a few "frozen faces" in the chorus, but the majority of the girls always wear a happy smile. I protest against the charge that there are "frozen faces" among the stars. Why, take our friends Joe Fogarty and Eugene Weiner, for

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one remedy that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only catarrh cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
